Synopsis

(SECTIONS 1-100)

			Page
	Preamble	...	1
	The Act is a consolidating, defining and amending Statute	...	1
	History of the Law of Evidence	...	1
	The Act repeals all rules of evidence not saved by the Act	...	2
	Construction	...	3
	Proviso	...	4
	Headings and side-notes	...	4
	Illustrations	...	5
	Reference to English authorities	...	5
	Lex fori	...	6
	Changes in the law of evidence are retrospective	...	7
	Object of the Evidence Act	...	7
	Part I
	Relevancy of facts	...	9
	Chapter I
	Preliminary	...	9
1.	Short title, extent and commencement	...	9
	Commentary
	India	...	9
	Pakistan	...	10
	Application of the Act to Court-Martial	...	10
	Judicial Proceedings	...	10
	Statement by Judge or Presiding Officer	...	10
	Courts	...	10
	Affidavits	...	10
	Department enquiries	...	11
	The Act is not applicable to proceedings before an arbitrator	...	12
	The Act is not applicable to proceedings under the Income-tax Act	...	13
	Administration of Evacuee Property Act	...	13
	Election Petition	...	13
	Preceding before industrial Tribunal	...	13
2.	Repeal of enactments
	Commentary
	Repealed section	...	13

		Page
The Act is a repealing Statute	...	14
Rules of evidence contained in other Statutes, Acts or Regulations are not affected	...	14
3. Interpretation clause	...	14
"Court"	...	14
Commentary
Unless a contrary intention appears from the context	...	14
"Court"	...	15
Family Court and Evidence Act	...	16
Includes, means and includes	...	16
"Fact"	...	16
Illustrations	...	16
Commentary
Facts	...	17
Relevant	...	17
"Facts in issue"	...	17
Explanation	...	18
Illustrations
Commentary
Facts in issue	...	18
Facts in issue and issues of fact	...	19
"Document"	...	19
Illustrations	...	19
Commentary
Document	...	19
"Evidence"	...	20
Commentary
Evidence	...	20
Types of evidence :—(1) Primary and Secondary	...	21
Direct and circumstantial evidence	...	22
"Proved"	...	23
"Disproved"	...	23
"Not proved"	...	24
"India"	...	24
Commentary
What is proof?	...	24
Proof : proved, disproved, not proved	...	24
Not proved	...	25

		Page
Evidence and proof : "matters before it"	...	25
Prima facie case	...	26
Proof in civil and criminal cases	...	26
Standard of proof : in civil and criminal cases	...	26
Necessary to explain the injuries on the person of the accused	...	28
Omission to send blood stained earth for chemical examination	...	28
Presumption of innocence	...	29
Burden on accused— see Sections 105, 106. Benefit of Doubt	...	29
Suspicion is not legal evidence	...	30
Corpus delicti	...	30
Circumstantial evidence in criminal cases	...	30
Explanation of the accused	...	33
False explanations	...	33
False denials	...	33
Special rules of proof in criminal trial	...	33
"Special rules of proof in criminal cases"— Election cases	...	33
Legal proof and moral conviction ; conjectures and suspicion	...	34
National Security Act, Section 3(2) and Criminal Procedure Code Section 156, 172	...	35
Constitution of India Art. 136	...	35
Wakf, Muslim Law	...	35
4. "May presume"	...	35
"Shall presume"	...	35
"Conclusive proof"	...	35
Commentary
Classification of presumptions	...	36
Presumptions	...	36
Presumptions of fact or Natural Presumptions	...	36
Presumptions of Law or Artificial Presumptions	...	36
Rebuttable Presumptions of Law	...	36
Irrebuttable Presumptions of Law	...	36
What is presumption	...	36
Presumptions of fact or natural presumptions	...	36
Presumptions of law or artificial presumptions	...	37
Conclusive proof	...	37
Chapter II
Of the Relevancy of facts	...	39
Commentary
Relevancy of Facts	...	39
Logical relevancy and Legal relevancy	...	39
Legal relevancy and admissibility	...	40
Relevancy not affected by provisions of Cr. Procedure Code;

		Page
considerations of public policy not recognized by the Act	...	40
5. Evidence may be given of facts in issue and relevant facts	...	41
Explanation
Illustrations	...	41
Commentary
Only facts in issue and relevant facts may be given in evidence	...	41
Trap witness	...	42
Objections to evidence : at what stage may objection to relevancy or to mode of proof be raised	...	43
Facts declared to be relevant	...	45
And of no others	...	45
Question of admissibility to be argued in the absence of the Jury	...	45
Criminal cases	...	45
Explanation	...	45
6. Relevancy of facts forming part of same transaction
Illustrations	...	45
Commentary
English Law	...	46
Res Gestae : contituent incidents of a transaction	...	46
Parts of the same transaction	...	47
Several offences may form one transaction	...	48
Statement admissible as part of the transaction under inquiry	...	48
A first information report may be admissible as a part of the transaction	...	50
Statements made by a raped woman	...	50
Spontaneous explanation of the accused	...	51
Statements admitted under Section 6 are original evidence and not hearsay	...	51
The maker of the statement need not be called to prove it	...	51
Statements which are admissible as part of the transaction are sub-stantive evidence	...	52
Statements which are apart of the res gestae may be admissible under Section 157 or Section 155	...	52
Statements contained in documents	...	52
Illustration (a)— "Bystanders"	...	52
7. Facts which are the occasion, cause or effect of facts in issue	...	52
Illustrations
Commentary
Occasion, cause, effect, opportunity, state of things	...	53
Causation	...	53

		Page
State of things	...	53
Opportunity for their occurrence	...	54
Opportunity	...	54
Footprints	...	54
Tape Record	...	54
Similar unconnected facts	...	54
Illustration (c)	...	54
8. Motive, preparation and previous or subsequent conduct	...	55
Explanation 1	...	55
Explanation 2	...	55
Illustrations
Commentary
Motive	...	57
Adequacy of motive	...	60
Proof of motive	...	60
Preparation	...	60
Preparation and attempt	...	61
Conduct	...	61
Persons whose conduct is relevant	...	62
Instance of relevant conduct	...	63
Absconding	...	64
Pointing out places connected with the offence or where stolen property or articles connected with the offence are concealed, production of stolen property or instruments of crime	...	65
Statements preceding or accompanying production or pointing out of stolen property or instruments of crime	...	67
Conduct is admissible to explain, but not to control, the terms of a document	...	67
Explanation 1 : Statements explaining or accompanying relevant conduct	...	67
Signs and gesticulations in reply to questions not admissible as conduct	...	68
Relevancy of a complaint ; distinction between a complaint and statement	...	69
Evidentiary function of a complaint and its terms	...	70
A first information report may be admissible as part of the informant's conduct	...	71
Explanation 2 : Statements affecting conduct	...	72
Silence admissible as conduct	...	73
Admissions by possession of, or access to, documents	...	74

Page

9. Facts necessary to explain or introduce relevant facts ... 75

Illustrations

Commentary

Scope ... 77
Introductory or explanatory facts ... 77
Facts which support or rebut an inference suggested by a fact in issue or relevant fact ... 78
Identity ... 79
Identity of things ... 79
Identity of skeleton ... 80
Evidence of Expert Trackers ... 80
Facts establishing the identity of a person with an ascertained person ... 80
Similarity of physical characteristics in cases involving questions of paternity ... 80
Question of paternity ... 80
Indentification by photographs ... 81
Identification of suspect by witness by showing photographs ... 81
Superimposed photograph is admissible into evidence ... 81
Previous identification ... 81
Identification by voice or beard ... 81
Identification by voice, and gait ... 81
Utterances : identification by ... 82
The identity of machine ... 82
Identity of a person as the doer of a particular act ... 82
Similar transactions whether admissible to establish the identity of an offender ... 82
Identity of tenure ... 83
Value of premises similarly situated ... 83
Identification tests or parades ... 83
Identification parade— when necessary ... 83
Late indentification parade ... 84
Effect of failure to hold identification parade ... 84
Evidentiary function of identification tests ... 85
Precautions to be taken in conducting test parade ... 87
Evidentiary value of identification tests ... 87
Identity of an accused must be established before he is punished ... 92
Mistake in identification is a question of fact ... 92
Identification parade and Art. 20 (3) Constitution ... 92
Section 9 and Section 164 Cr. P.C. ... 93
Admissibility of identification proceedings held by the police but not supervised by a Magistrate ... 93
Who can hold identification parade ... 93

		Page
Identification parade and Section 162 Cr. P.C.	...	94
Facts fixing the time or place at which any fact in issue or relevant fact happened	...	94
Facts showing the relation of parties by whom any fact in issue or relevant fact happened	...	94
Facts showing the relation of parties by whom any fact in issue or relevant fact was transacted	...	94
Memorandum of identification parade	...	94
Legal status of Identification Memo	...	94
10. Things said or done by conspirator in reference to common design	...	95
Illustrations	...	95
Commentary
Principle : Theory of agency	...	95
Applicability and scope of— Analysis of the section	...	96
The acts, statements or writings of a conspirator are admissible against himself independently of Section 10	...	96
Difference between English and Indian Law on the object	...	97
Common intention : English Law	...	97
Construction of things done, spoken or written regarding conspiracy	...	97
Prima facie proof of conspiracy and of the accused's connection with it must be given before giving in evidence the act. declaration or writing of a conspirator	...	97
Meaning and proof of conspiracy	...	98
Conspiracy is the root and specific instances are fruits	...	100
Evidence which is admissible on a charge of conspiracy	...	100
Evidence admissible beyond period of conspiracy : Conspiracy to Commit Criminal Breach of Trust	...	101
Past transactions	...	101
Applicability of the section at the appellate stage	...	101
Confession of a co accused or statement of an approver whether admissible under Section 10 as the communication of a conspirator	...	101
Confession of a deceased conspirator	...	102
In reference to their common intention	...	102
The statement, act or writing of a conspirator must, in order to be admissible against others, have reference to common intention. Statements made or acts done by others after the arrest of the accused whether admissible against the accused	...	102
Statements made or acts done by others before the accused joined the conspiracy	...	104
Statement by a conspirator that another conspirator mentioned the accused as a co-conspirator	...	105

		Page
Can one person be convicted of conspiracy	...	105
Illustration	...	105
Participation in conspiracy : expert testimony as to handwriting based on photographs Sections 10, 47, 120-B I.P.C.	...	106
Conspiracy to hush up case of corruption	...	106
Charge of cheating	...	106
Charge under Section 120-B I.P.C. not necessary	...	106
Documents in the possession of a conspirator when admissible against co-conspirators	...	107
Copies of intercepted letters	...	107
Evidentiary value of acts, statements or writings admitted under this section	...	107
Statements and acts of persons conspiring to commit an actionable wrong whether admissible against each other in civil cases	...	108
11. When facts not otherwise relevant become relevant	...	109
Illustrations	...	109
Commentary
Principle	...	109
Scope	...	109
Facts which make existence of a fact in issue or a relevant fact highly probable or improbable are themselves relevant	...	109
Highly probable	...	110
Degree of probability between the fact to be proved and the fact sought to be given in evidence	...	110
Court's discretion in admitting evidence under this section	...	111
Is the section controlled by the more specific provisions of the Act?	...	111
Statements, oral or documentary, of persons not called as witnesses, whether admissible under Section 11 ? Rule against hearsay how far affected by the section?	...	112
Recitals of boundaries in ancient deeds	...	113
Bad character inadmissible	...	113
Opinion evidence	...	114
Admissions in one's own favour may become admissible under Section 11	...	114
Similar unconnected transactions	...	114
Similar unconnected previous incidents Sections 11 and 54	...	114
Sections 11, 13 and 43	...	115
Instance of probability : Inference of the probability of a transaction from the similarity or simultaneousness of another	...	115
Facts or circumstances which weaken the prosecution case : Effect of all prosecution witnesses being only chance witnesses	...	116
Effect of identification made at the parade held after two months	...	117

Page

Effect of a material discrepancy between deposition and police statement ... 117
Effect of inconsistency with medical evidence, improbability, omission in report and factional rivalry ... 117
Relevancy of judgments not inter partes ... 118
Instances of probability ; entry or absence of entry ... 118
Batwara papers ... 118
Other instances of probability ... 118
Resemblance of features in cases involving question of paternity ... 118
Factors which render the prosecution case improbable : Case of bribery ... 118
Effect of improbability ... 119
Instances of improbability or inconsistency ... 119
Instance of improbability ... 119
Effect of an omnibus statement involving all present in an offence ... 120
Effect of omission to give the name of the accused in the F.I.R. ... 120
Effect of circumstances raising grave suspicion ... 120
Effect of a false statement by a witness that another alleged eye-witness was present ... 120
Effect of omission to hold an identification parade ... 121
Instance of facts and circumstances which were held not to vitiate the value of the prosecution evidence. Absence of name of accused in FIR— When the informant is not an eye-witness ... 121
Absence of any injury on person of accused— When he is only a leader who did not take direct part in a fracas ... 121
Absence of blood marks on clothes of a near relative ... 121
Slight errors in description particularly when the witness is illiterate ... 121
Relationship of a witness with the deceased is no ground in itself for rejecting his evidence ... 121
Unregistered documents whether admissible under Section 11 for collateral purposes ... 122
Evidence of a witness may be accepted even though some portion of the testimony is discarded ... 122
Guilt to be proved ... 122
Evidence of Alibi ... 122
Alibi ... 123
Previous judgments ... 123

Illustration

12. In suits for damages, facts tending to enable Court to determine amount are relevant ... 123

Commentary

		Page
13.	Facts relevant when right or custom is in question ...	124
	Illustration ...	124
	Commentary
	Principle ...	125
	By which ...	125
	The section applies to all kinds of rights and custom ...	125
	Right claimed by custom ...	126
	Admissibility of statements made in prior proceedings ...	126
	"Transaction by which" and "instances in which"; mere recitals, statements and admission in one's own favour are not admissible ...	126
	Deed of sale, mortgage, etc. whether admissible as a transaction by which a right is claimed or asserted ...	129
	Other documents containing assertion of right : maps, chittahs, khas mahal papers, jamabandis, road cess papers, partition deeds, batwara papers, etc. ...	131
	Entries sale-certificates, writs of attachment, robkaries or orders for delivery of possession, etc. ...	132
	Assertion or denial of a right or custom in pleadings, applications, reports, etc. ...	133
	Recitals in a Will ...	133
	Recitals of boundaries in documents ...	133
	Statements in third party documents ...	135
	Essentials of a valid custom ...	135
	Custom Overrides the General Law ...	135
	Proof of Customs ...	136
	Modes of proving custom ...	136
	Admissibility of Judicial Decisions in Support of Custom and their Value ...	138
	Value of oral evidence of custom when documentary evidence is withheld-Custom cannot be inferred by analogy ...	138
	Hearsay Evidence to Establish custom ...	138
	Family custom ...	138
	Sections 13 and 101 to 103.— Proof of family custom ...	138
	Caste custom ...	138
	Prohibitory custom ...	139
	Relevancy of judgments not inter parties ...	139
	Calcutta decisions ...	139
	Allahabad decisions ...	143
	Oudh decisions ...	143
	Patna decisions ...	145
	Nagpur decisions ...	146

	Page
Bombay decisions ...	146
Lahore decisions ...	148
Madras decision ...	149
Rangoon decisions ...	151
Sindh decisions ...	151
Privy Council decisions ...	151
Conclusion ...	153
Sections 35 and 11, whether applicable to judgments ...	154
Section 13, whether applicable to judgments ...	155
Judgments inter partes but not operating as res judicata ...	157
Extent of admissibility of judgments not inter parties ...	158
Relevancy of judgment inter partes ...	159
Judgment between a party and a stranger ...	159
Only appellate judgment must be produced ...	159
Judgment of the Appellate Court ...	160
Findings of fact, statements or recitals of facts, and observations contained in judgments not inter parties, whether relevant ...	160
Admission of judgment in a previous case ...	160
A judgment may be secondary evidence of the pleadings of the parites thereto, and of any statement, admission or acknowledgement ...	160
Contradicting a witness by a judgment : judgment whether admissible as proof of the deposition of a witness or the terms of a document referred to in the judgment ...	160
A previous judgment holding a person to be a minor is not evidence of minority ...	161
Admission of mortgagor in a mortgage-deed relevant and admissible in evidence ...	161
Adopted son ...	161
Recitals of age, date of birth, date of death, etc., in judgments, whether admissible under Section 13 or Section 35 ...	161
Previous decision in favour of or against other co-sharers ...	162
Possessory orders under the Criminal Procedure Code and the Specific Relief Act : Orders under Section 107, Criminal Procedure Code ...	162
Foreign judgments ...	164
Decisions in land acquisition cases ...	164
Land Acquisition case ...	164
Maharashtra Regional and Town Planning Act ...	164
Judgment as evidence of a compromise ...	164
Compromise ...	164
Razinama in Criminal Proceedings ...	164
Police reports and orders under Section 145. Cr. P. Code ...	164
Plaint and Written Statement ...	164

Page

Illustrations ... 164

Judgment of acquittal in a suit for damages for malicious prosecution ... 165
Judgment in a civil suit, whether admissible in subsequent criminal proceedings ... 165
Judgment in a criminal case whether admissible in a subsequent civil case ... 165
Orders in lunacy proceedings ... 165
Subsequent judgment ... 165

Whether judgments may shift onus ... 166

14. Facts showing existence of state of mind, or of body, or bodily feeling ... 166

Explanation 1 ... 166
Explanation 2 ... 166

Illustrations ... 166

15. Facts bearing on question whether act was accidental or intentional ... 169

Illustrations ... 169

Commentary

Principle ... 170
Relevancy of facts showing the existence of a mental condition or state of mind of an accused person which is an element of the offence of which he is charged : Sections 14 and 15 ... 170
Evidence admissible in proof of a mental or physical condition; Sections 14 and 15 ... 170
Guess work is not a fact ... 171
Evidence admitted under Section 14 or Section 15 is admissible in proof of only a mental fact, and is not admissible to prove the other ingredients of the right of liability ... 171
Evidence in Rebuttal ... 173
Similar facts, when they constitute a system or design may become admissible to prove the connection of the accused with the transaction charged ... 173
Sequence and proximity of time between the evidentiary fact and the fact to be proved ... 173
Direct evidence of mental condition or bodily feeling; declarations in Court ... 173
Circumstantial evidence of the existence of a mental condition; declarations out of Court ... 174
Declarations as to religious belief ... 174

	Page
Circumstantial evidence of the existence of a mental condition ; prior or subsequent similar occurrences ...	174
Principle of admissibility of similar acts and its qualifications ...	175
Evidence of similar occurrences should be given only when evidence as to the main fact and of the defendant's connection with it has been given ...	177
"Series of similar occurrences" ; Single occurrence, dissimilar instances ...	177
"In each of which the person doing the act was concerned" : anonymous instances ...	178
Proof of similar occurrences ...	178
Explanation 1 to Section 14 ; evidence must relate not to the state of mind in general but to the state of mind in reference to the particular matter in question ...	178
General tendency of accused cannot be proved ...	179
Explanation 2 to Section 14; previous conviction is admissible only when the commission of the offence is relevant as showing a state of mind ...	179
Direct evidence of intention ...	180
Burden of proof of intention ...	180
Illustration relating to evidence of intention ...	181
Proof of intention ...	181
Circumstantial evidence of intention ...	181
Direct evidence of knowledge ...	182
Circumstantial evidence of knowledge ...	182
Notice ...	183
Knowledge of propensities of animals ; Illustration (c) to Section 14 ...	183
Illustrations relating to evidence of knowledge ...	184
Ill-will, good-will ; malice ...	184
Negligence and rashness ...	185
Facts showing a state of body or bodily feeling ; health and feelings ...	186
Good faith ; Bad faith ...	186
Allegations of mala fides under the Companies Act ...	187
Fraud ...	188
Guilty knowledge in receiving stolen property ...	188
Counterfeiting and forgery ...	189
Other coins or documents possessed or uttered must be proved to be counterfeit or forged ...	191
Homicide ; other instance ...	191
Homicide ; similar instances of poisoning ...	191
Homicide : other instances of deaths in similar circumstances ...	192
Arson ...	192
Bribery ...	193
False pretences and other fraud ...	193
Embezzlement and cheating ...	195

		Page
	Criminal breach of trust ...	196
	Procuring abortion ...	196
	Rape ; sodomy ; incest, indecent exposure ; pandering ; pimping ...	196
	Treason ; sedition : defamation, etc. ...	197
	False claims ...	198
	Fraudulent transfers ...	198
	Extortion and blackmail ...	198
	Dealing in liquors or drugs ...	199
	Gambling ...	199
	Evasion of payment of duty ...	199
	Previous conduct ...	199
	Previous attempts to commit an offence; Sections 8 and 14 ...	199
	Previous commission of dacoities, thefts, etc., is relevant on charges of forming a gang for habitually committing dacoities or thefts but not on charges of specific dacoities ...	199
	Similar facts, when they constitute a system or design may become admissible to prove the connection of the accused with the transaction charged ...	199
	Illustration (a) ...	201
	Illustration (b) ...	201
	Illustration (c) ...	201
16.	Existence of course of business when relevant ...	201
	Illustrations ...	201
	Commentary
	Course of business, according to which an act would have been done, is admissible to prove that the act was done ...	202
	Presumptions arising from the course of business in the post office ...	203
	Postal Service ...	203
	Illustration (b) Presumption if a letter posted was received ...	203
	Admissions ...	203
17.	Admission defined ...	204
	Commentary
	Ground for the reception of admissions in evidence : Sections 17 to 30 : Admissions and confessions ...	204
	Definition of an admission; admissions by conduct ...	204
	Statement ...	204
	Admissions and confessions : importance of the distinction between the two ...	205
	Distinction between admissions and confessions ...	206
	An admission must be taken as a whole though it is not necessary that it should be believed or disbelieved as a whole ...	208

Page

A confession, like an admission, must be considered as a whole, though it is not necessary that it should be believed or disbelieved as a whole ... 209
Admission must be clear and unambiguous ... 211
Form of admission; admissions is invalid un-stamped or unregistered documents ... 211
Mode of proof of admissions : should an admission be put to the party making it ... 211
Time when admission may be made ... 214
Admission of a signature on a document is not tantamount to admission of its execution ... 214
Sections 17, 21 and 145 ... 214
Reference to admissions in judgments ... 214
Admissions by minor or without personal knowledge ... 215
Admission founded on hearsay or merely expressive of the declarant's belief or opinion ... 215
Admission on a pure matter of law ... 216
Evidentiary function of admissions ... 216
Statements in the presence, and documents in the possession, of a party ... 218
Admission not admissible against person other than the person making it ... 218
Admission in plaint ... 218
Effect of admission ... 219
Weight to be given to admission ... 219
Evidentiary value of statement in returns filed by party to Statutory Board giving list of properties ... 219
Party to the proceeding ... 219
Admission by a party ... 219

18. Admission by party to proceeding or his agent ... 219

Commentary

Person whose statements are admissions ... 220
Sections 17, 18 and 21- Admission of the adverse party is the best piece of evidence ... 220
Parties in criminal cases ... 221
Admissions by an accused ... 221
Admission by co-accused ... 221
Statements of parties suing or sued in a representative character ... 221
Admissions by agents ... 222
Proof of agency ... 223
Admissions by agents in criminal cases ... 223
Admissions by Co-Defendants ... 223
Admission by Government servants ... 224

	Page
Admissions by officers of corporations and firms ...	224
Admissions by counsel or solicitor ...	224
Affidavits and depositions of witnesses ...	227
Admissions by the manager of a joint Hindu family ...	228
Admissions by guardian or manager of Court of Wards ...	228
Other instances of agency ...	229
Admissions by a partner are admissible against the other partners ...	229
Whether a partner is an agent of the other partners to make an acknowledgment of liability, or payment of interest, or part payment of the principal and thus to extend the period of limitation ...	230
Admissions by partners admissible inter se ...	231
Admissions by persons having a joint proprietary or pecuniary interest in the subject matter of the suit ...	231
Jointly interest in tort or crime ...	232
Admissions by the predecessors in title of the parties ...	233
Admission by a mortgagor ...	234
Purchaser at a sale for arrears of revenue is not the representative of the defaulting proprietor ...	234
Auction purchaser is the representative of the judgment-debtor ...	234
Admissions of a former holder are not admissible against a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument ...	235
Admissions by insolvents ...	235
Admission of the principal, when admissible against the surety ...	236
Admission of the insured are not admissible against the beneficiary ...	236
Admission by trustees ...	236
An admission by a co-plaintiff or a co-defendant is not admissible unless the party making the admission is jointly interested with, or is the predecessor in title of, the party against whom it is tendered in evidence ...	237
Admission must have been made during the continuance of the interest of the person making it and must relate to his title and not to independent matters ...	238
Transfers in fraud of creditors ...	238
Statement of Admission in judgment ...	239
Recital in document ...	239
Effect of admission in documents ...	239
Denial of Admission ...	239
Admissions must be taken as a whole ...	239
19. Admissions by persons whose position must be proved as against party to suit ...	239
Illustrations ...	240
Commentary
Admissions by strangers ...	240

		Page
	Case ...	241
20.	Admission by persons expressly referred to by party to suit ...	241
	Illustrations ...	241
	Commentary
	Admissions by referees ...	241
	Admissions by referees on matters of law ...	242
	An admission by a referee is not conclusive unless it operates as an estoppel, or amounts to an adjustment of the suit, or to an agreement to refer ...	242
	Admissions by referees in criminal cases ...	243
21.	Proof of admissions against persons making them and by or on their behalf ...	243
	Illustrations ...	244
	Commentary
	An admission may be proved against, but not in favour of, its maker ...	244
	Recitals of boundaries ...	246
	Confessions and Admissions contrasted ...	246
	Confessions and admissions in criminal cases : statements in F.I.R. admissibility of ...	246
	Accused prosecuted on the First Information Report made by him ...	247
	An admission may be proved as against the person by whom or on whose behalf it is made and against the representative in interest of such person ...	248
	Relevancy of proof of statements made by accused persons before Custom Authorities : Sections 21 and 67 ...	248
	Previous statements to public officer ...	248
	Section 21— Effect of admission— Essentials of admission ...	248
	Admission and previous statement for contradiction ...	249
	Admission Rebuttable ...	249
	Admission as to motive— Admissible under Section 21 ...	249
	Statement to Police ...	249
	Admissions in intercepted correspondence between respondents in divorce proceedings ...	249
	Letters of accused to be used as admission ...	249
	Clause (1) ...	250
	Clause (2) ...	250
	Clause (3) ...	250
	Effect of admission ...	251
	Admission by accused ...	251
	Sections 21 and 145 ...	252

Page

22. When oral admissions as to contents of documents are relevant ... 252

Commentary

Admission as to contents of documents ... 252

23. Admission in civil cases, when relevant ... 252

Explanation ... 253

Commentary

Admissions without prejudice ... 253
Negotiations for a compromise ... 254
Admissions before an arbitrator ... 255
Explanation ... 255

24. Confession caused by inducement, threat or promise, when irrelevant in criminal proceeding ... 255

Commentary

Principal ... 255
Ingredients of Section 24 ... 256
Meaning of the word "voluntary" ... 258
Tests for determining whether a confession is voluntary ... 258
Whether the Confession was voluntary ... 258
If the circumstances threw any doubt on the voluntary character of a confession the confession must be rejected ... 258
Involuntary confessions ... 258
A non-voluntary confession must be rejected ... 259
Mere allegations of inducement are not sufficient to displace the voluntary character ... 259
The test to be applied to a confession for the purpose of judging whether it is 'true' ... 259
Is the confession true ? ... 259
Confession Contradieted by medical evidence ... 259
The test of the admissibility of a confession in its voluntariness and not its truth ... 260
Motive for confession ... 260
An involuntary confession is admissible in civil proceedings ... 260
Burden of proving the voluntary or involuntary character of a confession ... 260
Burden to establish that confession was voluntary is on the prosecution—Effect of prolonged custody ... 262
Nature of the onus ... 262
Appears to the Court ... 262
The question of admissibility of a confession is a question for the judge; but the question of its weight is a question for the jury ... 264
Conditions of inadmissibility of a confession essentials of the rule of exclusion ... 265

	Page
Condition (i) of inadmissibility : only such statements are inadmissible as amount to confessions ...	266
Meaning of confession ...	267
Communication to another is not an essential ingredient of the concept of confession ...	268
Mere conduct is not a confession ...	268
Exculpatory statements are not confessions ...	269
Confession— Self exculpatory statement ...	270
Use of a confession which is partly inculpatory and partly exclupatory ...	271
Confessional Statement— Exculpatory part inherently improbable and contradicted by other evidence— Inculpatory part can be accepted ...	271
Where the statement of an accused covers two distinct and separate matters ...	271
Acknowledgement of subordinate facts ...	272
Pointing out places in consequence of inducement ...	273
Confession "plenary" and "not plenary" ...	273
Judicial and extra-judicial confessions ...	273
Condition (ii) of inadmissibility : confessor must be an accused person ...	273
Person under surveillance making a statement ...	275
Condition (iii) of inadmissibility : confession must be involuntary; nature of the inducement, threat or promise ...	275
Inducement may not be express but may be implied ...	277
The confession must be the result of inducement ...	277
Inducement to confess one crime does not invalidate a confession as to another crime ...	277
Confession need not be made to the person in authority holding out the inducement nor need inducement be held out directly to the prisoner himself ...	277
Confession caused by physical violence or threat of physical violence; rack, whip, lynching and "sweat box" ...	277
Confession obtained by "third degree" methods; "sweat box"; continuous and searching interrogation by a person in authority ...	278
Explaining Section 171-A of the Sea Customs Act is no threat ...	279
Promise of pardon or of cessation or withdrawal of prosecution; promise not to prosecute ...	279
Promise of not prosecuting or of saving the offender, or of cessation or withdrawal of prosecution ; promise to release or abstain from arrest; threat to arrest ...	280
Inducement that the sentence would be lighter ...	281
Inducement involved in the expression "you had better confess" or "you had better tell the truth" ...	281

		Page
Statement obtained on oath	...	282
Inducement outside the terms of Section 24	...	282
Production of Document as Result of Inducement	...	283
Condition (iv) of inadmissibility : the inducement, threat or promise must have been held by a person in authority— When does a confession become inadmissible	...	283
Sections 24 and 25— Customs Officers not Police Officers	...	286
Customs Officers not Police Officers	...	286
Explaining Section 195 I.P.C. no threat	...	287
Confessional statements made before Coroners	...	287
Deposition by the accused in extradition proceedings	...	287
The person holding out inducement must actually possess authority	...	287
Condition (v) of inadmissibility ; sufficiency and character of the inducement	...	288
Advantage to be gained or evil to be avoided must be of a temporal nature : confessions induced by religious or moral exhortations are admissible	...	288
The advantage to be gained or the evil to be avoided must be of a temporal nature and must have reference to the proceedings	...	289
Confession and plea of guilty	...	290
General observations relating to the proof, admissibility and value of confessions	...	290
Proof of a confession Sections 24 to 27	...	290
Proof of an extra judicial confession	...	291
Extra Judicial Confession : Confession if oral must be assessed carefully	...	293
Extra-judicial confession in writing	...	293
Extra judicial confession— May be relied upon, proved— Actual words not necessary	...	293
Evidentiary Value of Extra-judicial confession	...	293
Weight of retracted extra-judicial confession	...	293
Proof of a judicial confession; oral confession to Magistrates	...	294
Admissibility of a confession	...	294
How confession should be construed and used	...	295
Confession not contrary to oral evidence and so it cannot be said to be untrue	...	295
Evidential value of confessions	...	295
Whether an inadmissible confession may be used to contradict the confessor if and when examined as a witness	...	297
Corroboration to confession; Rule of prudence in regard to corroboration	...	298
Admissibility and value of retracted confessions	...	299
Retracted confession requires corroboration	...	302
Corroboration needed for retracted confession	...	302

		Page
	Corroboration by independent evidence is necessary before a conviction can be based upon a retracted confession, even when it is accepted as voluntary and true ...	302
	Nature of the corroboration required for supporting a retracted confession Difference between corroboration for accomplice evidence and retracted confession ...	302
	Nature of corroboration required for confession ...	303
	Conviction cannot be based on uncorroborated retracted confession ...	303
	Value of retracted confession— Rule for guidance of court ...	303
	Corroboration required for retracted confession ...	304
	Onus of proving the voluntary character of a retracted confession ...	304
	Confessions must be taken as a whole, though they need not be believed or disbelieved as a whole where there is other evidence ...	305
	Sections 24 and 25— Ban under these sections compared ...	305
	Sections 24 to 27 and Section 162 of the Criminal Procedure Code ...	305
	Scope of Sections 24 to 30— Law relating to confessions ...	305
	No conflict of Section 24 with Section 80 ...	306
	Grant of copy of confession ...	306
	Function and duty of court under Section 24 ...	306
25.	Confession to police officer not to be proved ...	306
	Commentary
	Reason of the rule ...	307
	Confession made to Police Officers ...	307
	A person accused of any offence ...	308
	Confessor need not have been "accused" of the offence at the time the confession was made ...	308
	Confession : in this section does not mean confession only of the crime under Investigation ...	309
	Confession contained in a recover list ...	309
	Confession contained in F.I.R. ...	309
	Confession in first information is inadmissible, but admission is not ...	309
	F.I.R. by the accused admitting the offence ...	309
	Accused prosecuted on the first information report made by him Police Officer ...	310
	Is Customs Officer a Police Officer ...	311
	Test for being a Police Officer— Whether Excise Inspector under Bihar and Orissa Excise Act (2 of 1915) is a Police Officer ...	312
	Excise Officer is not a Police Officer ...	313
	Members of the Railway Protection Force are not Police Officers ...	313
	Confessional letter addressed to a Police Officer is admissible ...	313
	Sub-Inspector of Police on deputation does not cease to be a Police Officer ...	314

		Page
	Confession made to a Police Officer is not admissible against a co-accused, but may be admissible for, or to contradict the evidence of the confessor when examined as a witness ...	314
	Extra judicial confession made to a private person in the presence of a police officer is inadmissible ...	315
	Confessions made to police by deceased accomplices admissible against others ...	315
	Purposes for which a confession to a Police Officer may be admissible ...	315
	Ban is absolute ...	316
	Section 25 and 26— Use of statements made to Police ...	316
	Confessions made to Police Officers are inadmissible but admissions may be admissible ...	316
	Pointing out places connected with the offence ...	317
	Sections 25, 26 and 27— Incriminating statements not leading to discovery ...	318
	Sections 24 and 52— Ban under these sections compared ...	319
	Scope and applicability ...	319
26.	Confession by accused while in custody of police not to be proved against him ...	319
	Explanation ...	319
	Commentary
	Sections 25 and 26 compared ...	319
	Statements not amounting to confessions are not admissible—Scope ...	320
	Admission not barred ...	321
	Custody ...	321
	Police Officer ...	323
	Confession is admissible if made to a Magistrate or to a person other than a Police Officer but in the immediate presence of a Magistrate ...	323
	Confession to Presidency Magistrate ...	326
	Coroner ...	326
	Taluka Magistrate ...	326
	Prolonged detention and its effect on voluntariness ...	327
	Sections 25 and 26— Use of statements made to police ...	327
	Reasons underlying Sections 25, 26 ...	327
	Sections 25 and 26— Reasons for the provision ...	327
	Explanation ...	328
	Constitutionality of Sections 25 and 26 ...	328
27.	How much of information received from accused may be proved ...	328

Page

Commentary

Principle— Sections 26 and 27 ... 328
Theory of confirmation by subsequent facts ... 328
Sections 26, 27 compared ... 329
Sections 27, 25 and 26— Scope of Section 27 Essential ingredients ... 329
Sections 26 and 27 ... 331
Scope explained ... 331
Applicability of Section 27— Essential condition for ... 332
Essential ingredient of Section 27 ... 332
Construction of the section ... 332
The section is a proviso to Sections 24-26 ... 333
Person making the statement must be accused of an offence and in the custody of a Police Officer— Import of the expression "accused of any offence" ... 333
Information must lead to the discovery of a relevant fact, i.e., a material object ... 336
Pointing out places connected with the offence and statements made while pointing out such places ; no discovery ... 338
Discovery in consequence of information ; accused himself producing, or leading the police to, to the material object; statements preceding discovery ... 338
Information leading to discovery— Admissible in evidence ... 341
Statement of accused to police leading to discovery— Admissibility ... 341
Section 27 ... 341
In absence of statement of accused Section 27 not attracted ... 342
No discovery if police already knew where was the property ... 342
Discovery evidence is not substantive evidence but only corroborative evidence ... 342
Section 27 and illustration (a) to Section 114 ... 342
In a theft case the statement of accused to Police that he would show the place where ornaments are hidden and information leading to recovery are admissible in evidence ... 342
"Fact discovered"— Deceased's head not found— Admissibility of evidence ... 343
Cases ... 343
Statements accompanying production of a thing ... 343
Statements after discovery ... 344
Confessional statements in recovery lists ... 344
Joint discoveries ; like information given by more than one accused ... 344
Where several accused gave information but discoveries were made by one "S" — His statement is admissible ... 345
Joint statement given by two accused persons leading to the discovery of two material objects— Whether admissible—Separate statements

		Page
	from the accused person to be recorded ...	346
	By whom should discovery have been made ; no discovery where the fact is already known to the police— Discovery of incriminating articles when inadmissible ...	346
	How much of information is admissible, so much of such information as "relates distinctly" to the fact thereby discovered ...	348
	Information and discovery must be connected as cause and effect ...	356
	"Fact discovered"— Statement of accused that the articles were kept by him in one of the rooms in P.W. 32's house--Articles not found on search— Subsequently articles were recovered on the basis of a statement give by P.W. 31. Recovery could not be treated as a recovery in pursuance of the information supplied by the accused— Recovery not one under Section 27 ...	357
	Meaning of the expression fact thereby discovered in Section 27 ...	357
	Statement that the article was given to another person, whether admissible? ...	357
	Whether information should be stated in the exact words of the accused? ...	358
	Other cases illustrative of the section ...	360
	Ban under Sections 26 and 27 compared ...	360
	Can a confession admissible under Section 27 affect a co-acused under Section 30-K ...	361
	Section not affected by Section 162, Cr. P. Code ...	361
	Section 27 and Section 8 ...	362
	Evidential value of the discovery and the accompanying statement ...	362
	Evidentiary value of confession ; Discovery held to amount to possession and not mere knowledge ...	364
	Disclosure : Accompanying statement ...	365
	Section 27 unaffected by Sections 161, 162, Cr. P.C. ...	365
	Section does not offend against Article 14 ...	365
	Section 27 does not offend against the Constitution ; Section 27 and Article 14 (equal protection of the laws) ...	365
	Section 27 and Article 20 (3) (Self-Incrimination) ...	366
28.	Confession made after removal of impression caused by inducement threat or promise, relevant ...	366
	Commentary
	Fully removed ...	366
29.	Confession otherwise relevant not to become irrelevant because of promise of secrecy etc. ...	367
	Commentary
	Scope ...	368
	Promise of secrecy ...	368

		Page
	Deception ...	368
	Confession in answer to questions ...	368
	Want of warning ...	368
30.	Consideration of proved confession affecting person making it and others jointly under trial for same offence ...	369
	Illustrations ...	369
	Commentary
	Principle ...	369
	"Are being jointly tried for the same offence" ...	370
	Joint trial in warrant cases ; plea of guilty; admissibility of the confession of the accused pleading guilty ...	371
	Sessions trials ; plea of guilty accepted ; no joint trial ; inadmissibility of the confession of the accused pleading guilty ...	372
	Session trials ; plea of guilty not accepted joint trial, admissibility of the confession of the accused pleading guilty ...	372
	Session trial, plea of guilty neither accepted nor refused to be accepted confession inadmissible ...	372
	Joint trial ; summons cases ; plea of guilty ...	373
	"Confessions affecting himself and some other of such persons", test of admissibility ...	373
	Applicability of the section to confessions made at the trial as well as to those made before the trial ...	375
	Mode of proof of a confession ...	375
	Confession made to a Magistrate in a Native State ...	376
	Sections 30 and 32 (1) Confession of a dead accused is relevant against a co-accused, though it is inadmissible under Section 30 ...	376
	"May take into consideration" ; evidentiary value of the confession of a co-accused; conviction on such confession, whether legal? ...	376
	Confession of a co-accused is not substantive evidence against the other accused ...	378
	Confession of co-accused— Admissibility and weight of ...	379
	Accused making confession exculpating himself and throwing blame on co-accused ...	379
	Death after confession ...	379
	Use of confession in one case, in another case ...	379
	Corroboration of the confession of a co-accused necessary ...	379
	Recovery of ornaments as corroboration of confession ...	380
	Reasons for requiring corroboration ...	380
	Nature and extent of corroboration ...	380
	Firstly, corroboration must be on material particulars ...	381
	Secondly corroboration must be by independent evidence and not by the testimony of an accomplice, nor by the confession of another co-accused ...	382

		Page
Evidentiary value of confession of co-accused	...	384
Retracted confession— Use of retracted confessions of the co-accused	...	384
Retracted confession of co-accused	...	384
Retracted confession admissible against maker and the co-accused	...	385
Number of confessions by several accused retracted appreciated and extent of corroboration	...	385
Probative value of retracted confession	...	386
Section 30 and 3— Probative value of confession of co-accused	...	386
Sections 30 and 24— Self exculpatory confession subsequently retracted use of such confession	...	387
Sections 30, 114, 133	...	387
Statements made in answer to notice under Section 171-A, Sea Customs Act— No bar to application of Section 30 to such statements, if same are considered to be voluntary	...	387
Section 27 and Section 30 ; confession inadmissible against its maker is also inadmissible against a co-accused	...	387
Confessions made to the police	...	388
Section 30 and Article 20 (3)	...	388
31. Admissions not conclusive proof, but may estop	...	388
Commentary
Admissions are not conclusive and may be proved to be untrue or mistaken	...	388
Admission— If conclusive proof- Section 4	...	390
Admission- Evidentiary value of	...	390
Effect of admissions	...	390
Admission— Binding effect	...	390
Mutual admissions	...	390
Evidentiary value of admission made under suspicious circumstances	...	390
Gratuitous admissions	...	391
Admissions shift onus	...	391
Admissions by conduct	...	391
Admissions by possession of documents	...	391
Admissions and confessions	...	391
An admission must be taken as a whole	...	391
Form of admissions	...	391
Mode of proof of admissions ; should an admission be put to the Party making it?	...	391
Admissions by minors	...	391
Admissions on questions of law	...	391
Admissions founded on hearsay	...	391
Admissions in pleadings	...	391

		Page
	Admission in a pleading of a former litigation— Evidentiary value ...	392
	Deposition of witness in other litigations— Not admissible against other defendants ...	392
	Admission in writ petition— Applicability ...	392
	Admission of payment by a creditor ...	392
	Admission by a widow ...	392
	Admission in a registered deed ...	392
	Admission in a gift deed ...	393
	Admission of marriage ...	393
	Admission in divorce Proceedings ...	393
	Admission as to the construction of a document ...	393
	Confession not excluded by Sections 24-26 are admissible under Section 31 ...	393
	Statements by persons who cannot be called as witnesses ...	394
32.	Cases in which statement of relevant fact by person who is dead or cannot be found, etc. is relevant ...	394
	(1) When it relates to cause of death ...	394
	(2) Or is made in course of business ...	394
	(3) Or against interest of maker ...	394
	(4) Or gives opinion as to a public right or custom, or matters of general interest ...	394
	(5) Or relates to existence of relationship ...	395
	(6) Or is made in will or deed relating to family affairs ...	395
	(7) Or in document relating to transaction mentioned in Section 13 clause (a) ...	395
	(8) Or is made by several persons and expresses feelings relevant to matter in question ...	395
	Illustrations ...	395
	Commentary
	Statements by persons who cannot be called as witnesses : ground of admissibility ...	397
	Statements made by signs or gestures ...	397
	Statements of relevant facts ; statements of facts in issue ...	398
	Joint statements by persons deceased and persons alive ...	398
	Competency and credibility of the maker of the statement ...	398
	Statements inadmissible under section 32, whether admissible under Section 11, Section 14, or any other section ...	398
	Statements admitted under section 32 are substantive evidence ...	398
	Condition precedent to the admissibility of statements under section 32 ...	399
	"Statements made by a person who is dead" ...	399

	Page
Who cannot be found ...	400
Who has become incapable of giving evidence ...	400
Whose attendance cannot be procured without unreasonable delay or expense ...	400
Clause (1) ; Dying Declarations ...	400
Principle and the reason of the rule ...	400
What is a dying declaration and its weak points and principle of its admission ...	400
Difference between the Indian rule and the English rule ; declaration need not have been made under expectation of death ...	401
Competency and credibility of the declarant ...	401
Statements made before injuries ...	401
Substance of the declaration ...	403
Cause of declarant's death must be in issue in case in which the declaration is sought to be given in evidence ...	404
Death not as a result of injuries ...	405
Statement not as to the cause of death is not admissible. When dying declaration inadmissible ...	405
Circumstances of transaction resulting in his death ...	406
Person to whom the declaration should be made; form of the declaration ...	407
Unreliable dying declaration ...	408
Statements made by deceased to Magistrate and Police Head Constable— Admissibility of ...	408
Declaration recorded by a Magistrate not competent to do so ...	409
Mode of recording a dying declaration ...	409
Dying declaration comprising of answers to questions probative value ...	409
How should dying declarations be proved ? ...	411
Test of reliable dying declaration ...	411
Witnesses present at the time of recording of dying declaration not examined ...	412
Circumstances which lend strength and assurance to a dying declaration ...	412
Evidential value of dying declarations; need for corroboration ...	412
Need for corroboration to a dying declaration ...	416
Infirmity in dying declaration— corroboration required ...	416
Absconding as corroboration ...	417
No rule of law or prudence that it requires corroboration ...	417
Conviction may be based on uncorroborated dying declaration ...	417
When conviction can be based only on dying declaration ...	417
Dying declaration— Evidentiary value of ...	418
A dying declaration must stand or fall as a whole ...	421
Incomplete dying declaration ...	421

	Page
Dying declaration incomplete ...	422
Dying declaration complete— thumb impression taken after death statement admissible in evidence ...	422
Dying declaration should be free and unaided by outside agency ...	423
Limits of dying declaration ...	423
Long statement likely to be not genuine ...	423
Dying declaration need not be exhaustive ...	423
Dying declaration referring to motive of accused— admissibility ...	424
Dying declaration implicating several persons does not become less credible ...	424
Value of dying declaration— Eye witness was disbelieved and according to medical evidence the deceased was not in a position to walk or speak ...	425
Dying declaration in urdu ...	425
Application for police protection ...	425
Section 32 and 33 ...	425
Clause (2) : Declarations in course of business or duty ...	426
Reasons of the rule ...	426
Difference between the English rule and the Indian rule ...	426
Condition precedent to the admissibility of the declaration : proof that the declarant cannot be called as a witness necessary ...	426
If the statement is in writing, it must be duly proved ...	427
Statement must have been made in the ordinary course of business and not on a special occasion or for a special purpose ...	427
Books kept in the ordinary course of business ...	429
Peon's indorsement of refusal on a letter; report of a process-server ...	429
Statements in the diary of a deceased Police officer ...	429
Statements made by deceased deed writers admissible to prove execution of deeds ...	429
Statements by deceased bhats, family chroniclers and priests as to relationship, births deaths and marriages ...	430
Entries of death or birth in the diary of deceased chaukidar ...	430
Correctness of age of accused ...	430
Entries in hundabandi, chowhaddibandi, jamabandi jamawasibaqi, talab-baqi or collection papers and teiskhana registers, etc. ...	430
A statement admissible under this clause may amount to an admission in favour of its maker and may be admissible in his life-time : road-cess returns ...	431
Entries in books of account relevant under section 34 do not require corroboration, if they become relevant under section 32 also ...	432
Evidentiary value of loose sheets of almanac ...	432
Section 32 (2) and (6) Panjis (genealogical trees) maintained by Panjikars among Naithal Brahmins ...	433
Statements in commercial documents ...	433

	Page
Clause (3) Declarations against interest ...	433
Principle and reason of the rule ...	433
Condition precedent to the admissibility of statements under this clause; proof that the declarant cannot be called as a witness is necessary ...	433
If the statement is in writing, it must be duly proved ...	433
Difference between admissions and statements admissible under this clause ...	434
Recitals in a consent decree are not "statements" ...	434
Statements against pecuniary interest ...	434
Road-cess returns ...	435
Charging and discharging entries in accounts, discharging entries outbalancing the charging entries : charging entries admissible ...	436
Statements against proprietary interest : declarations in disparagement of title ...	436
Statement of deceased person regarding separation admissible ...	438
Recitals of boundaries of property in deeds not inter parties, whether admissible to prove ownership or possession of adjoining property? ...	438
Meaning of a statement being "against interest" ...	440
Personal knowledge on the part of the declarant of the fact stated necessary ...	441
Collateral and incidental facts mentioned in the statement are admissible ...	441
Statement exposing its author to a prosecution or a suit for damages ...	442
Whole statement admissible ...	442
Statements by accomplices ...	443
Admissibility of confessional statements made to the police by a deceased accomplice doubtful : Section 32 (3), 25, 26 and 30, Evidence Act, and Section 162, Cr. P. Code ...	443
Relief that the statement would expose its maker to prosecution is necessary ...	443
Statements made after prosecution has commenced or after the risk of prosecution has passed away are inadmissible ...	443
Statements falling within Section 32 (3) are admissible under Section 21 in the declarant's lifetime ...	444
Clause (4) : Declarations as to Public and General rights ...	444
Principle and reason of the rule ...	444
Conditions of admissibility ...	445
Statement must relate to the existence of the right or custom and not to particular facts evidencing the existence of that right or custom ...	445

	Page
Public right versus private right : statement asserting the existence of a private right admissible to prove the non-existence of a public right ...	446
Statement must give the declarant's opinion and must not be a mere repetition of hearsay Section 32 (4), 48 and 49 ...	446
Public right or custom, or matter of public or general interest ...	446
Statement is admissible whether the right or custom be a fact in issue or merely relevant ...	447
Declarations as to private rights are admissible ...	447
Statement must be by a person likely to be aware of the existence of the right custom or matter in question ; competency of the declarant ; entries in wajibulariz ...	448
Statement must have been made before the commencement of the controversy ; Lis mota ; Section 32 (4) and Section 49 ...	448
Clause (5) and (6) : Declarations as to pedigree ...	449
Principle and reason ...	449
Scope of Section 32 (5) ...	450
Points of distinction between clause (5) and clause (6) ...	450
Scope of Section 32 (5) and (6) ...	451
Form of the declaration ...	451
Invalidity of a document does not ordinarily affect the admissibility of the statement ...	451
Declaration must be shown to have been made by a person who is dead or who cannot be produced as a witness ...	451
Statement by several persons some of whom are dead ...	452
To be admissible under clause 5, the declaration must be of a person having special means of knowledge ...	452
Statement in a register of baptism, school register, pocket book, or petition for guardianship, whether admissible ? ...	454
Relationship of blood, marriage or adoption ...	454
Declaration admissible on such matters as age, seniority, minority, date of birth, legitimacy, and names of relations : but not on questions which are not strictly questions of relationship ...	455
Construction of Section 32 (5)— Statement as regards age— admissible ...	457
Horoscopes or birthday-books ...	457
Admissibility of pedigrees under clause (6) ...	458
Admissibility of pedigrees under clause (5) ...	459
Pedigrees filed in settlement proceedings are admissible under Section 32 (5) and Section 35 : presumption of genuiness under Section 90 in respect of 30 years old pedigrees ...	460
Pedigrees must be shown to represent the statement of a competent declarant who is dead or who cannot be called as witness ...	461
Pedigrees more than 30 years old may be presumed to be genuine under Section 90 ...	462

		Page
	Evidence of relationship derived from a pedigree inadmissible if pedigree not produced ...	463
	Objection to the admissibility of a pedigree table must be taken in the trial Court ...	463
	Statement in Wills ...	463
	Personal knowledge ; evidence by a living witness on matters of pedigree inadmissible if based on hearsay of incompetent declarants, but admissible if based on hearsay of competent declarants ...	464
	Personal knowledge ; declaration inadmissible if based on hearsay of persons not having special means of knowledge, but admissible if based on hearsay of persons having special means of knowledge...	465
	Declaration contained in a document filed by the deceased or by the counsel or agent of the deceased ...	465
	The declaration is admissible in declarant's favour even in his life-time; Section 32 and Section 21 ; statements in the affidavit or deposition of a living person ...	466
	Lis mota the declaration must have been made before the commencement of any controversy ...	467
	Value of evidence as to pedigree ...	467
	Clause (7) : Declarations relating to a transaction by which a right is created, asserted, etc. ...	468
	Scope and application of clause (7) ...	468
	Statements contained in a document relating to any such transaction as is mentioned in Section 13 (a) ...	469
	Section 32 (7) and 32 (3) ...	469
	Transaction must be one by which, and not in which, the right or custom was created, asserted etc. ...	469
	Statement in the will of a deceased person ...	470
	Assertion of title in a mortgage-deed by a deceased mortgagor is admissible in proof of ownership ...	470
	Other instance of assertion ...	470
	Clause (8) : Statements made by a number of persons expressing their feelings or impressions ...	471
	Principle ...	471
33.	Relevancy of certain evidence for proving, in subsequent proceeding, the truth of facts therein stated ...	471
	Explanation ...	471
	Commentary
	Principle and reason ...	472
	Proof of unavailability of the witness is a necessary prerequisite for the admission of former deposition ...	472

	Page
Provisions of the section should be applied sparingly and with caution ; evidence of and reasons for, application of the section should be formally recorded ...	472
Effect of consent to the admission of inadmissible evidence in civil and criminal cases
When the witness is dead ...	475
Person making the statement died before her statement could be recorded before the Magistrate— Statement inadmissible under this section ...	475
When the witness cannot be found ...	475
Incapable of giving evidence ; illness ...	476
When the witness is kept out of the way by the adverse party ...	477
Unreasonable delay and expense ...	477
Depositions in foreign country under the Fugitive Offenders Act ...	478
The evidence must have been given in judicial proceedings or before a person authorized by law to take it ...	480
Persons authorized by law to take evidence ...	480
Reasons to be stated for transfer of statement ...	481
Evidence must have been given before a competent authority and taken in accordance with law ...	481
Proviso (1) : Identity of parties ...	481
Former proceeding in which evidence was given must have been between the parties to the subsequent proceeding or between the representatives in interest of such parties ...	481
To determine whether a person is the representative in interest of another regard must be had to the state of affairs at the time the evidence was given in the first suit ; adopted so, whether representative of his natural father ? ...	484
Former depositions admissible against and in favour of persons suing or being sued as partners, joint contractors, coparceners, legatees, or tennts-in-common, representative suits ...	484
Explanation : depositions in criminal cases admissible in civil cases and vice versa
Depositions before the Coroner ...	485
...	486
Proviso (2) : The right and opportunity to cross examine ...	487
Both the right and the opportunity to cross-examine must have co-existed ...	487
No right to cross-examine : statement made in an inquiry under Section 476, Cr. P. Code ; deposition taken before the framing of the charge in warrant cases, whether admissible if the witness not available for further cross-examination ? ...	487
Witness dying before conclusion of cross-examination : admissibility of the deposition doubtful ...	488

Page

Right and opportunity to cross-examine not utilised before the committing Magistrate : deposition admissible ... 488
Cross examination reserved, witness dying before cross-examination deposition whether admissible ? ... 489
Right and opportunity to cross-examine witnesses implied in proceedings before an officer authorized to take evidence ... 489
Depositions taken on commission admissible ... 489
Evidence recorded in luancy proceedings ... 490
Evidence given in ex-parte proceedings or in the absence of party ... 490
A former deposition is inadmissible if it was not read over to the witness ... 491
In a de novo trial depositions of dead witnesses may be admitted under Section 33 ... 491
Right and opportunity of cross-examination in mutation proceedings ... 491
Existence of an opportunity to cross-examine, if not admitted, must be proved ... 492
Statements in affidavits are inadmissible ... 492
Evidence produced by a defendant in the first proceeding is inadmissible against his co-defendant ... 492

Proviso (3) : Identity of Issues ... 492

Principle ... 492
Questions in mutation proceedings are not necessarily the same as in a subsequent civil suit ... 493
Evidence recorded in a suit to contest a notice of ejectment, whether admissible in subsequent civil suit ? ... 493
Deposition made before a Sub-Registrar in an inquiry under Section 41 (2) of the Registration Act is admissible in a subsequent civil suit relating to the genuineness of the will ... 494
A deposition admitted under Section 33 constitutes substantive evidence; admissibility of a previous deposition under some other provisions of the law ... 494
Mode of proof of a deposition ... 495
Use of incomplete evidence ... 495
Credit of a deceased deponent may be confirmed or impeached like that of an ordinary witness ... 495
Section 33 of the Evidence Act and Section 288 of the Criminal Procedure Code ... 496

Statements made under special circumstances ... 496

34. Entries in books of account when relevant ... 496

Illustration ... 496

Commentary

		Page
	Principle ...	496
	What is a book of account ? ...	497
	"Regularly kept in the course of business" : the system according to which accounts are kept affects their value and not their admissibility contemporaneous, personal knowledge of the entrant ...	497
	In applying the general principle of Regularity of Entry different circumstances may come into question ...	499
	Incorrect entries in the books ...	499
	Formal proof of the fact that the books have been regularly kept in the course of business, whether necessary ? ...	499
	Evidentiary function of the entries ; entries relevant but not sufficient to charge a person with liability ...	500
	Corroboration ...	502
	Account books regularly kept in course of business may be proved but should be corroborated ...	502
	Each item in the books must be proved ...	502
	Writer must be examined ...	503
	The nature of corroborative evidence ...	503
	Plaintiff's own statement, whether sufficient corroboration ? ...	504
	Absence of entry of a fact which, in the usual course, should have been recorded in the books, is relevant to prove the non-existence of that fact ...	505
	Account relevant under Section 34 and other sections of the Act, e.g., Sections 32 (2), 21, 157, 159 and 160 ; corroboration, whether necessary ? ...	506
	Suspicious entry ...	507
	Sections 34 and 90 Evidentiary value loose sheets of account ...	507
	Rent collection papers, Jamawasilbaqi, jamabandi, talib baqi papers etc. ...	509
	Corroboration necessary for entries in account books ...	509
35.	Relevancy of entry in public record, made in performance of duty ...	509
	Commentary
	Principle ...	509
	Scope-Hath Chitha ...	510
	Public or other official register, book or record ; public servant ...	511
	Section 35 is applicable to an entry in a public or other official record of a foreign country ...	511
	Contemporaneousness ; personal knowledge ...	511
	Entry in an official record made in excess of official duty, whether admissible ? ...	512
	Entry, if not made by the proper official, whether admissible ? ...	512
	Absence of entry in a public or official book, register or record, whether relevant? ...	513

	Page
Admissibility of registers of births, baptisms, marriages or death ...	513
Chowkidar Hatchitha entries— Book not produced but a leaf of the book ...	516
Entries in Hatchitha Book about child birth— Admissibility to prove paternity— Non mention of name of child- If ground for not relying on it. ...	516
Certified copies of registers of births and deaths admissible ...	516
Evidentiary value of registers of births and deaths ...	517
Applicability ...	517
Official record of custom ; admissibility and evidentiary value of entries in the wajibularz ...	517
Official record of custom ; admissibility and evidentiary value of entries in the riwaj-i-am ...	519
Entries in Riwaj-i-am in conflict with general custom recorded in Rattigan's Digest— The former should prevail ...	520
Other official records of custom ...	520
Records of Rights, settlement, survey and other revenue records ...	521
Record of rights ...	522
Evidentiary value of settlement records ...	523
Evidetiary value of revenue records ...	523
Revenue register ...	525
More than one record of rights ...	525
Recital of alienation or partition in a revenue record, whether evidence of alienation or partition ? ...	526
Inam Registers ...	526
Value of entries in Inam Register ...	526
Quinquennial Registers ...	526
Register of sarsikan papers ...	527
Presumption of public temple in Madras State and near abouts ...	527
Diglott Register ...	527
Value of recitals in an ancient document ...	527
Chittahs ...	527
Partition or batwara papers ...	527
Maps, surveys and parcha slips ...	528
Reports made by public servants ...	529
Evidentiary value of Official reports ...	529
Reports under Section 202, Cr. P. Code, or under Order 26, C.P. Code ...	530
Endorsement of a public document by a public servant : statement made by a public servant in a public document ...	530
Recitals of relevant facts in judgments inter partes or not inter partes ...	531
Entry of date of birth in a guardianship certificate or in a register of applications for guardianship, whether relevant ? ...	531

		Page
Hospital registers and certificates	...	532
School registers, records and certificates	...	532
Matriculation certificate	...	533
Evidentiary value of school registers	...	534
False entry in School Register can be explained	...	534
Municipal registers and records	...	534
Municipal Records— Presumption of correctness	...	535
Jail registers	...	535
Forest marking book	...	535
First information reports and statements recorded by the police	...	535
Relevancy of Police Report of election meeting	...	536
Proof of Electoral Roll	...	536
Evidentiary value of voter's list	...	536
Entries in Crime Note Book	...	536
War Diaries	...	536
Recovery list	...	537
Public record of a relevant statement is admissible	...	537
District Gazetteers	...	537
Metrological records	...	537
Correspondence and copies of correspondence	...	537
Instances of other entries held admissible under the section	...	538
Mutation entries	...	539
Evidentiary value of mutation order based on untrue evidence	...	539
Report of Court of Enquiry on accident to aircraft	...	539
Entries held unadmissible under the section	...	540
Municipal Act	...	540
Recitals of boundaries of land in a sale certificate	...	541
Sections 35 and 77	...	541
Facts contained in Judgment not Inter Partes are not admissible under Sections 40 to 43	...	541
Commissioner's Report	...	541
36. Relevancy of statements in maps, charts and plans	...	541
Commentary
Maps, charts and plans	...	541
Published maps or charts generally offered for public sale	...	541
Maps and plans made under the authority of Government must have been made for a public purpose	...	542
Map not an official map— Admissible only on proof that it was generally offered for public sale	...	542
Superimposed maps	...	542
Plan made by a Commissioner	...	542
Proof of maps and plans	...	542
Survey maps	...	543

		Page
	Survey maps are good but not conclusive evidence of possession; presumption as to their accuracy
	Factors governing the evidentiary value of survey maps ...	543
	Survey maps, whether evidence of title ? ...	544
	Revenue maps ...	544
	Chittahs and field-books ...	545
	Topographical survey maps ...	545
	Thakbast maps and thak khasra ...	546
	Presumption of accuracy of thak maps ...	546
	Evidentiary value of thak maps ...	546
	Thakbast maps, whether evidence of possession and title ? ...	547
	Survey maps and thak maps, whether sufficient evidence of the fact that the land was included in the Permanent Settlement ? ...	548
	Survey map disagree with the thakbast map ...	548
	Absence of entry in a survey map or thak map ...	549
	Diara map ...	549
	Rennell's map ...	550
	Other maps and plans ...	550
	Section 36 and 83 ...	550
37.	Relevancy of statement as to fact of public nature, contained in certain Acts or notifications ...	551
	Commentary ...	551
	Principle
	Fact of a public nature ...	552
	Recital of a fact of a public nature in a private Act ...	552
38.	Relevancy of statements as to any law contained in law books ...	552
	Commentary ...	552
	Proof of foreign law
	Statement of foreign law in authorized books and authorized or unauthorized reports is admissible ...	553
	Proof of foreign law by expert testimony ...	553
	Foreign law is provable by foreign judgment ...	553
	Commercial documents ...	553
	How much of a statement is to be proved ...	553
39.	What evidence to be given when statement forms part of a conversation, document, book, or, series of letters or papers ...	553
	Commentary
	Independent parts of a statement not admissible
	Explanatory or qualifying parts of a statement are admissible ...	554
	Parts of a confession, not admissible under Section 27, do not become admissible under Section 39 ...	554
	Judgments of courts of justice, when relevant ...	555
	...	555

		Page
40.	Previous judgments relevant to bar a second suit or trial ...	555
	Commentary
	Previous judgments admissible in support of a plea of res judicata or of autrefois acuit or autrefois convict ...	555
	"Holding a trial" includes trial of an issue ...	556
	Only appellate judgment must be produced ...	556
	Judgment given in evidence under Section 40 may be attacked on any such ground as is mentioned in Section 44 ...	557
41.	Relevancy of certain judgments in probate, etc., jurisdiction ...	557
	Commentary
	Judgments in Personam and judgments in rem ...	558
	Final judgment, order or decree ...	559
	Only appellate judgment must be produced ...	559
	Judgments in rem conclusive of matters actually decided ; foreign judgments in rem ...	559
	Reasons of the conclusiveness of judgments, in rem ...	559
	Judgment in rem whether conclusive in criminal proceedings ? ...	559
	Construction and Interpretation of the section ...	560
	What is a matter of status ...	560
	Judgments of probate Courts ...	560
	Judgment in rem-Presumption regarding probate judgment ...	561
	Order granting probate conclusive against parties, privies and strangers, of the appointment of the executor or the administrator, and of due execution, validity and contents of the will ...	561
	Other matters of which the probate is conclusive evidence ...	562
	Order of a probate Court cannot be questioned by any other civil Court ...	562
	Order granting probate, whether conclusive answer to a criminal prosecution ? ...	563
	Probate judgment is conclusive of the grounds of the decision against parties and privies on principles of res judicata ...	563
	Probate judgment no evidence, in any case, not conclusive evidence either under Section 41, Evidence Act, or Section 11, C.P. Code, of matters only incidentally decided ...	564
	Order refusing probate, whether conclusive ? ...	565
	Probate judgment of foreign Court ...	565
	Matrimonial jurisdiction ...	566
	Judgment of a Court of matrimonial jurisdiction conclusive against strangers on questions status but not on grounds for the dissolution of marriage, etc. ...	566
	Judgment under the Hindu Marriage Act is a judgment in rem ...	567

		Page
Judgments of a foreign matrimonial Courts	...	568
Judgment of a matrimonial Court annul marriage, whether conclusive on a charge of bigamy?	...	568
Admiralty jurisdiction	...	568
Scope of Section 41, Insolvency judgments	...	568
Insolvency jurisdiction ; order of adjudication as insolvent etc.	...	569
Adjudication by insolvency Court as to a person's title to property seized by the Court is conclusive	...	570
Order refusing to declare a person insolvent is not a judgment in rem ; decision of insolvency Court that a person is or is not member of a firm not conclusive inter omnes	...	570
Decision that a creditor has or has not proved his right to present the petition	...	571
Findings in an insolvency judgment, whether conclusive ?	...	571
Legal character	...	571
The section is exhaustive of judgments in rem : judgments on questions of adoption, legitimacy, etc., are not judgments in rem	...	571
Foreign judgments declaring status	...	572
Foreign Judgments	...	572
Orders in luancy proceedings	...	572
42. Relevancy and effect of judgments, orders or decrees, other than those mentioned in Section 41	...	572
Illustration	...	573
Commentary
Principle	...	573
Matters of a public nature	...	573
Judgments on questions of customs or usage	...	573
Report is not a judgment	...	574
Judicial decisions on questions of customs are relevant ; compromise judgments admissible	...	574
Other instances of matters of a public nature, judgments regarding which have been held admissible	...	574
Matters not held to be of a public nature	...	575
Coroner's Inquisition	...	575
Only appellate judgment must be produced	...	575
43. Judgments. etc., other than those mentioned in Sections 40 to 42 when relevant	...	575
Illustrations	...	576
Commentary
Principle	...	576
A judgment, not inter partes, is conclusive evidence against

	Page
strangers of its existence, date and legal consequences and distinghished from its truth ...	577
Admissibility of judgment not inter partes ...	578
Judgment not inter partes— Redemption suit— Evidentiary value of previous decisions ...	578
A judgment not inter partes, not being a judgment in rem or relating to matters of a public nature is irrelevant, but the existence of such judgment may become relevant under some other section of the Act ...	578
Instance of the existence of a judgment becoming a fact in issue or a relevant fact ...	580
Mere recitals of relevant or collateral facts in judgments are inadmissible ...	581
Judgment between a party and a stranger ...	581
Judgments inter partes, which are not admissible under Sections 40-42 whether admissible under Section 43 ? ...	581
Previous judgment in criminal case whether admissible in subsequent trial ...	582
Judgment of a criminal Court is irrelevant in a civil suit as proof of the point decided by the criminal Court ...	582
Evidentiary value of a judgment of a criminal Court ...	584
Proceeding for the revocation of the grant of probate : Relevancy of the judgment in a previous criminal case wherein the son was convicted of murder ...	584
Judgment of a civil Court is not admissible in a criminal Court to establish the truth of the facts found by the Civil Court ...	585
Criminal cases should be given precedence ...	585
Judgment of acquittal in a suit for damages for malicious prosecution ...	586
Malicious Prosecution : Suit for damages ...	586
Admissibility of a judgment of the criminal Court in a suit for damages ...	586
Plea of autrefois acquit ...	586
In a prosecution for perjury, the judgment in the proceeding in which evidence was given is inadmissible ...	586
A judgment may be secondary evidence of the pleadings of the parties thereto ; and of any statement, admission or acknowledgement ...	586
Finding by a Co-operative Societies Deputy Registrar ...	587
Contradicting a witness by a judgment whether admissible as proof of the deposition of a witness or the terms of a document referred to in that judgment ? ...	587
Sections 11, 13 and 43 ...	588
Motor Accidents Tribunal and Criminal Judgment ...	588

	Page
44. Fraud or collusion in obtaining judgment or incompetency of Court, may be proved
Commentary ...	588
Avoiding circumstances of a judgment admitted under Sections 40, 41 or 42
Avoiding circumstances may be shown in the proceedings in which the decree or order is given in evidence ...	588
Foreign judgment may be assailed by a stranger on the grounds mentioned in the section ...	589
Want of jurisdiction ...	590
Judgment delivered by a Court "not competent" to deliver it is void ; distinction between total want of jurisdiction and erroneous exercise of jurisdiction ...	590
Separate proceedings to set aside a decree or an order made without jurisdiction are not necessary ...	590
The Court executing a decree is entitled to refuse to execute it if it was made by a Court not having jurisdiction ...	592
Section is subject to section 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure ...	592
Fraud ...	592
Fraud as an avoiding circumstance of a judgment, order or decree ...	592
Fraudulent nature of the judgment, order or decree may be proved in the proceeding in which it is tendered in evidence, and a previous separate suit to have it set aside is not necessary ...	593
No res judicata if the previous judgment, order or decree was obtained by fraud or collusion ...	593
What is fraud? ...	593
Explanation ...	594
Fraud in Section in 44 means "actual" and not "constructive" fraud ...	594
Fraud must be extrinsic or collateral to everything adjudicated upon and not such as has been dealt with by the Court passing the judgment sought to be vacated ...	594
It may be shown that the Court was misled, but not that the Court was mistaken ; decree cannot be attacked on the ground that it was procured by perjured evidence ...	595
Ex parte decree is invalid if obtained by fraudulent suppression of summonses ...	595
Court asked to set aside decree on the ground of fraud cannot examine the decree on its merits ...	596
Signature on summons forged ...	597
A stranger may plead fraud, as also a party on whom fraud has been practised, but not a party who himself has practised fraud ...	597
Whether a privy may plead the fraud of his predecessor in interest ? ...	597
	598

		Page
	Collusion ...	598
	Collusion ...	598
	Separate suit to set aside the decree not necessary ...	599
	A stranger to a previous judgment may plead collusion but not a party to it ...	599
	Negligence ...	599
	Section, whether exhaustive of the grounds which a judgment, order or decree may be attacked ; negligence ...	599
	Setting aside decrees on ground of mistake ...	600
	Right under Section 44 is independent of any limitation ...	600
	Opinions of third persons, when relevant ...	601
45.	Opinions of experts ...	601
	Illustrations ...	601
	Commentary
	Option evidence in general ; expert testimony ...	601
	Matters for expert testimony ; competency to depose as an expert ...	603
	Foreign law ...	603
	Foreign law ...	603
	Competency of a foreign law expert ...	604
	Science or Art ...	604
	Science or art ...	604
	Mode of making expert opinion evidence ...	605
	Expert should be examined in the presence of the accused and not on commission ...	606
	Medical experts ...	607
	Competency of a medical expert ...	607
	Value of medical expert testimony ...	607
	Use of the evidence of a medical expert, Per. S.K. Das and Sarkar JJ. ...	608
	Medical opinion on the nature of injuries ...	610
	Medical evidence ...	610
	Medical opinion as to age ...	610
	Proof of age of girl ...	610
	Opinion of experts post mortem report— Evidentiary value as to age of injuries ...	611
	Medical report or certificate ...	611
	Doctor's endorsement regarding soundness of mind ...	611
	Scope— Expert evidence as to mental condition of a person ...	612
	Workmen's Compensation Act ...	612
	Accident— Loss of expectation of life— Proof— Medical Evi-

	Page
dence— Admissibility ...	612
Chemical Examiner's report ...	612
Differing reports from Chemical Examiner and Imperial Serologist— Duty of prosecution ...	613
Hypothetical questions ...	613
Hypothetical questions to an expert ...	614
Chances of a man falling out of a window ...	614
Handwriting experts ...	614
Handwriting experts ...	614
Competency of handwriting experts ...	615
Mode of proving a writing genuine or forged. Sections 45, 47 and 73, Modes of proving handwriting ...	615
Report of a handwriting expert ...	617
Examination of handwriting expert in a sine qua non ...	617
Value of expert testimoney on questions of handwriting ...	618
Opinion as to typewritten matters ...	623
Opinion as to printed matters ...	623
Finger Impression Experts ...	623
Thumb-impression experts ...	623
Competency of finger print experts ...	624
Value of finger print experts testimony ...	624
The report of a finger print expert ...	627
Section 45 and 5— Evidence of thumb impression expert-Importance of Duty of Court ...	627
Opinion of Expert Trackers ...	627
Evidence of foot print expert ...	627
Opinion of expert on type script ...	628
Footprints ...	628
Identification of Hair ...	628
Dog tracking evidence— Admissibility ...	629
Evidence of dog tracking— Not ordinarily of much weight ...	629
Fire arms experts ...	629
Scope of- Murder caused by use of firearm prosecution, if bound to call ballistic expert in addition to direct evidence ...	629
Value of the opinion of nautical assessors ...	630
Public Analyst's certificate ...	630
Sections 45 Scope— Opinion of Architects— Regarding cost of construction— Value of ...	630
Opinion of Registrar of Trade Mark as an Expert ...	631
Section 45— Copyright ...	631
Expert testimony in general ...	631
Failure to examine Excise Inspector ...	631
Section 45— Examination of a handwriting expert if a sine qua non ...	631

		Page
	Opinion of expert not called as a witness ...	631
	Failure to cross-examine an expert ...	631
	Court acting as an expert ...	632
	Value of expert testmony in general ...	632
	Section 45— Opinion of handwriting expert—Evidentiary value ...	633
	Evidence of a handwriting expert- Evidentiary value and binding nature ...	633
	Value of expert evidence ...	633
	Expert's evidence not supported by reasons valueless ...	633
	Finding based on expert testimony may be challenged in second appeal	634
	Evidentiary value of photographs ..	634
	Whether expert testimony of handwriting can be based on photographs— Admissibility of photographs ...	634
	Mode of impeaching the credit of an expert. ...	634
	Cross-examination of an expert by another expert ...	634
46.	Fact bearing upon opinions of experts ...	635
	Illustrations ...	635
	Commentary
	Facts consistent or insonsistent with the opinions of experts ...	635
	Expert Evidence ...	636
	Value of Passage from books ...	636
47.	Opinion as to handwriting when relevant ...	636
	Examination ...	636
	Illustrations ...	636
	Commentary
	Mode of proving Handwriting ...	637
	Proof of the genuineness of a document ...	638
	Handwriting proof of ...	638
	Examination of Handwriting expert not necessary in every case of disputed writing ...	639
	Anthracence powder and ultra-violet lamp ...	639
	Competency ; witness must be acquainted with the handwriting ...	639
	Whether handwriting includes signature and mark ? ...	640
	Evidence of handwriting expert should be corroborated ...	641
	Explanation to Section 47 ...	641
	Sections 45 and 47— Expert evidence about genuineness of the handwriting ...	642
	Section 45 and 47— Opinion of handwriting expert- Evidentiary value of when Court to accept opinion ...	642
	Section 47 and 67 ...	642

		Page
	Sections 45, 47 and 73 ...	643
48.	Opinion as to existence of right or custom, when relevant ...	643
	Explanation ...	643
	Illustration ...	644
	Commentary
	Opinion as to the existence of a right or custom; section 13 compared with section 48 ...	644
	Section 32 (4) compared with section 48 ...	644
	General custom or right ...	644
	Whether custom includes usage ? ...	644
	Persons having special means of knowledge ...	645
	Opinion is admissible, though based on hearsay ...	645
	Value of opinion evidence ...	645
	Entries as to custom in a wajibularz or rewaj-i-am ...	646
	Rattigan's Digest ...	646
49.	Opinion as to usage, tenets, etc., when relevant ...	646
	Commentary
	Opinions as to usages, tenets, etc. ...	647
	Usages of a family ...	647
	Opinions of persons having special means of knowledge ...	647
	Gambling slips ...	648
	Meaning of betting terms ...	648
	Entries as to custom in a wajibularz ...	648
50.	Opinion on relationship, when relevant ...	648
	Illustrations ...	648
	Commentary
	Family conduct ; principle ...	648
	Essential requirements ...	649
	Section 50— Scope— Relationship of one person to another-Proof of conduct of witness having special means of knowledge— If can be proved by another ...	649
	Section 32 (5) and Section 50 compared ...	649
	Section 50 and 32 (5) ...	650
	Mode of proving opinion ...	650
	Special means of knowledge ...	650
	Persons having special means of knowledge ...	650
	Value of the evidence relevant under this section ...	651
	Value of evidence relevant under Section 50 ...	651
	Instances of conduct held relevant ...	651
	General reputation as proof of relationship not admissible ...	652

		Page
	Opinion on relationship ...	652
	Opinion expressed by conduct ...	652
	Presumptions from conduct ...	652
	Member of family deposing about fact heard from ancestors— Admissibility ...	652
	Personal knowledge not necessary ...	653
	Opinion based on hearsay not admissible ...	653
	Evidence of general repute ...	653
	Marriage : acknowledgment ; adoption ...	653
	Law presumes marriage ...	655
	Proviso ...	656
	Effect of the proviso to Section 50 ...	656
	Proviso to section 50 not applicable to contempt proceedings ...	656
	Section 50 and 60— Applicability and scope— Opinion evidence as to relationship— Mode of proof ...	657
	Sections 50 and 60— Inter Relationship between these Sections ...	657
	Sections 50 and 60 Proof of Marriage ...	657
	Evidence of devolution of property—Sections 50 and 60 ...	658
51.	Grounds of opinion, when relevant ...	658
	Illustration ...	658
	Commentary
	Principle ...	658
	Grounds of opinion ...	658
	Character, when relevant ...	659
	Introductory ...	659
52.	In civil cases character to prove conduct imputed, irrelevant ...	659
	Commentary
	Scope of Sections 52, 53 54 and 55 ...	659
	Evidence of character is admissible where character is a fact in issue ...	659
	Evidence of character inadmissible when character not in issue ...	660
	Sections 52 and 155 ...	660
53.	In criminal cases, previous good character relevant ...	660
	Commentary
	Previous good character ...	660
	Where character not in issue ...	661
	Value of the evidence of good character ...	661
	Sections 53 and 55, Explanation— Difference between character and disposition— Evidence of good character— value of ...	662

		Page
54.	Previous bad character not relevant, except in reply ...	662
	Explanation 1 ...	662
	Explanation 2 ...	662
	Commentary
	Evidence of bad character ...	662
	Evidence of bad character, when admissible; Explanation 1 ...	664
	Evidence of bad character may become relevant under sections 14 and 15 ...	665
	Previous conviction : Explanation II ...	666
	Previous convictions for specific offences, whether admissible in trials of gang cases under Section 400 or Section 401 I.P. Code ? ...	667
	Proof of Previous conviction under Section 75, I.P. Code ...	668
	Character of the prosecutor ...	668
55.	Character as affecting damages ...	669
	Explanation ...	669
	Commentary
	Character evidence in suits for damages ...	669
	Cases where bad character of the plaintiff affects the amount of damages ...	669
	Plaintiff's good character, whether relevant ...	669
	Explanation : general reputation and general disposition ...	670
	Part II
	On proof
	Chapter III
56.	Facts which need not be proved ...	671
	Commentary
	Facts which need not be proved ...	671
57.	Facts of which Court must take judicial notice ...	671
	Commentary
	Judicial notice ; Facts of which Court must take judicial notice ...	673
	Clause (1) ; Judicial notice of laws and rules having the force of law ...	674
	Rules of Hindu law, Mohammadan law, or custom to be judicially noticed ...	674
	Reference to Law Reports ...	675
	Clause (2) : Acts of British Parliament ...	675
	Clause (4) : course of proceeding of Parliament ...	676
	Clause (6) : seals of which English Courts take judicial notice ...	676
	Signature or seal of a Sub-Registrar or of a Foreign Notary Public ...	676
	Clause (7) ; judicial notice to be taken of Gazetted Officers ...	676

		Page
Gazette need not be exhibited	...	676
Clause (8) ; States recognised by the Government of India	...	677
Clause (9) divisions of time	...	677
Geographical divisions	...	677
Public festivals : facts and holidays	...	677
Clause (10) ; territories under the dominion of the Government of India	...	677
Section 57 (10)— Judicial notice of annexation of territory— Rule as to	...	678
Clause (11) ; state of war between the Government of India and any other State	...	678
Clause (13) ; rule of the road	...	678
List of facts enumerated in Section 57 not exhaustive of the facts of which Courts may take judicial notice	...	678
Constitution of India, Art. 14 and 226	...	681
Reference to appropriate books of documents of reference	...	681
Matters of history, literature, science or art, of which judicial notice may be taken; reference to standard works	...	682
Reference to works of science or art ; Section 57 and Section 60	...	683
Matters of history, literature, science or art, of which judicial notice may be taken ; reference to standard works	...	682
Reference to works of science or art ; Section 57 and Section 60	...	683
Attention of the parties must be drawn to books and documents referred to by the Court under this section	...	684
The Judge cannot utilize his personal knowledge of particular facts which are not subject of judicial notice	...	684
Constitution of India, Art. 32	...	684
58. Facts admitted need not be proved	...	685
Commentary
Admissions in pleadings ; principle	...	685
How and when may admissions be made ?	...	685
Implied admissions or admissions by non-traverse	...	686
Implied admission as to jurisdiction	...	686
Admissions by Counsel	...	686
Distinction between evidentiary admissions and admissions in pleadings	...	687
Admission of the execution and the terms of a document renders proof of the document unnecessary, even though the documents is inadmissible for want of registration, sufficient stamp or proper attestation	...	687
Admission of a subsequent oral agreement varying the terms of a registered instrument	...	688
Section 58— Original need not be proved	...	689

		Page
Section whether applicable to criminal trials ?	...	689
Consent of the accused to an unauthorized course of procedure	...	689
Admissions in probate suits and divorce cases	...	690
Section 58— Denial	...	690
Section 51— Admission— Weight of	...	690
Proviso ; Courts may require admitted facts to be proved ; discretion to call for proof should be exercised where the admission is fraudulent or erroneous or where the document admitted is inoperative by reason of want of registration or proper attestation	...	691
Discretion when to be interfered with by the appellate Court	...	691
Chapter IV	...	692
Of oral evidence	...	692
59. Proof of facts by oral evidence	...	692
Commentary
Facts that may be proved by oral evidence	...	692
Meaning of oral evidence	...	692
Evidentiary function of oral evidence	...	692
Election cases	...	692
Election cases	...	692
Oral evidence should be judged in the light of probabilities, admitted facts and principles of human action	...	692
Presumption arising from partial perjury or forgery to be applied with caution	...	701
Appreciation of oral evidence	...	703
60. Oral evidence must be direct	...	708
Commentary
Meaning of "direct evidence" in English law and under the Indian Evidence Act	...	709
Circumstantial evidence	...	709
Meaning of "hearsay" ; exceptions to the rule against "hearsay"	...	710
Statements made by persons not examined as witnesses may in some cases amount to "original" as distinguished from "hearsay" or "derivative" evidence	...	710
Reasons for the exclusion of hearsay	...	711
Hearsay evidence— Reasons for rejection	...	711
Fact to be proved by direct evidence must be shown to be fact in issue or relevant	...	711
Hearsay evidence held inadmissible	...	712
Section 60	...	712
Fabricating Evidence	...	713
Section 60	...	713
Section 60— Oral evidence— Part of the statement which is

		Page
	hersay not admissible ...	713
	Secondary evidence of the contents of a document by a person who has seen but not himself read, the document is inadmissible ...	714
	Evidence as to the signature of a person by one who did not see the executant sign ...	714
	Section 50— Admissibility of F.I.R. ...	714
	Reports, certificates, letters telegrams, newspapers, maps etc., are inadmissible unless the writer is examined ...	714
	The post-mortem report if relates to dead body— Evidence of doctor as to indentification if admissible ...	715
	Catalogues, admissibility of ...	715
	Hearsay evidence as to the loss ot a document, when admissible to found a case for the reception of secondary evidence ...	715
	Doing and sayings of an unlawful assembly or a mob ...	716
	Hearsay evidence of general repute in proceedings under Section 110, Cr. P. Code, admissible ...	716
	Opinion as to the existence of a family custom is relevant even if the opinion is based on hearsay ...	716
	Section 50 and 60 ...	716
	Family tradition ...	716
	Hearsay in affidavits ...	717
	Consent or omission to object hearsay evidence does not make it admissible; hearsay evidence in cross-examination ...	717
	Section 60— Domestic tribunal and proof ...	717
	Proviso I ; Opinions of experts expressed in treatises may be proved by the production of treatise ...	717
	Section 49 & 60— Opinion of living expert in a treaties ...	718
	Proviso II ...	718
	Chapter V ...	718
	Of documentary evidence ...	718
61.	Proof of contents of documents ...	719
	Commentary
	Section 61 is subject to the provisions of Sections 64 and 65 ...	719
	Section 61 ...	719
	Section 61— Scope— Consent to admission of document if bar to challenge its genuineness ...	719
	Section 52, 61, 64 & 65— Scope and applicability ...	719
62.	Primary evidence ...	720
	Explanation 1 ...	720
	Explanation 2 ...	720
	Illustration ...	720
	Commentary

		Page
Primary evidence	...	720
Explanation I : Document executed in several parts or counterparts	...	720
Explanation II : Printed, Lithographic, photographic and other reproductions made by uniform process	...	721
63. Secondary evidence	...	721
Illustrations	...	722
Commentary
Definition and admissibility of secondary evidence ; Section 63 and 65	...	722
Section 63— Proof of Report of speech	...	722
Section 63— Photograph	...	722
Clause (1) ; certified copies	...	723
Certified copy is not proof of the execution of the document	...	723
Copies of registered documents obtained from the Registration Office	...	723
Clause (2) ; copies made by mechanical processes, and copies compared with machine—made copies.	...	723
Clause (3) ; copies made by mechanical processes, and copies compared with machine—made copies.	...	723
Judgment, whether good secondary evidence of the pleadings, admissions, depositions, documents filed etc. ?	..	725
Copies obtained from the Registration Office	...	726
Proof of copy is no proof of the execution and genuineness of the original	...	726
Section 63	...	726
Clause (4) ; counterparts of documents	...	726
Clause (5) ; oral accounts of the contents of a document, given by a person who has himself seen it	...	726
Oral account of the contents of a document by a person who has seen but not read the original is inadmissible	...	727
The section is exhaustive of the kinds of secondary evidence permitted by the Act	...	728
A judgment may be secondary evidence of the pleadings of the parties thereto, and of any statement, admission of acknowledgement	...	729
Objection to the form of secondary evidence cannot be taken for the first time in appeal	...	729
Admission of improper secondary evidence by consent	...	729
64. Proof of documents by primary evidence	...	729
Commentary
Principle	...	729
Section 64— Medical Report	...	730

		Page
Section 64— Unregistered lease	...	730
Section 64— Objection to admissible of document— If can be raised in appeal	...	730
65. Cases in which secondary evidence relating to documents may be given	...	730
Commentary
Section— 65 Scope	...	731
Sections 65 and 91 ; facts evidenced by documents may, in some cases, be proved by independent oral evidence	...	731
A document need not be proved or produced when its execution and contents have been admitted in pleading	...	733
Written admission as to the contents of a document, made otherwise than in pleadings also dispenses with the production of the original	...	733
Admission as foundations of a claim	...	734
Secondary evidence can be admitted only on the grounds mentioned in Section 65	...	734
Section 65— Producing during arguments	...	734
The section is applicable to criminal cases	...	734
Section 65— Section applies to criminal cases also	...	734
Appellate court will not ordinarily interfere with the discretion of the first Court in the admission of secondary evidence	...	734
Secondary evidence admitted without objection in the Court of first instance, appellate Court cannot raise or recognise an objection to its admissibility	...	735
Section 65— Registered deeds— Proof in the absence of original deeds	...	735
A document inadmissible for want of registration, cannot be proved by secondary evidence	...	736
Secondary evidence of an unregistered mortgage-deed is admissible to establish the personal liability of mortgagor	...	737
Secondary evidence cannot be given of the contents of a document which is inadmissible by reason of its not having been sufficiently stamped	...	737
When may a document be presumed to have been stamped	...	738
Secondary evidence of an unstamped document executed out of India	...	738
Documents, not produced after notice, to be presumed to have been duly stamped	...	738
Section 65— Original documents not produced— Copies are not admissible	...	739
Section 65— Secondary evidence— Admissibility when original available	...	739

	Page
Section 65— Secondary evidence— Admissibility— In case original itself inadmissible ...	739
Secondary evidence of an acknowledgment of liability under Section 19 of the Limitation Act is admissible ...	739
Secondary evidence of a document is no proof of its genuineness or execution ...	739
Section 65— Certified copy of will ...	739
Section 65— Uncertified copy is useless ...	739
Section 65— Draft of notice issued by party— Admissibility in evidence ...	739
Clause (a) ...	740
Section 65 (a)—Scope of Section 65 (a)— Case falling under Section 65 (a) Secondary evidence is admissible ...	740
When the original is or appears to be in the possession or power of the person against whom it is sought to be proved ...	740
Section 65 (a) ...	740
Notice ...	740
Section 65 (a) ...	741
Any kind of secondary evidence is admissible under this part of the clause ...	741
Section 65— Any secondary evidence will be admissible ...	741
Section 65 (a)— Terms of lease contained in correspondence Original produced— Secondary evidence admissible ...	741
When the original is or appears to be in the possession or power of any person out of reach of, or not subject to the process of the Court, secondary evidence becomes admissible without notice to produce the original ...	741
When the original is or appears to be in the possession or power of a person who is legally bound to produce it ...	741
Section 65 (a)— Clause (a) of Section 65 is not controlled by clause (f) thereof ...	742
Section 65 (a) and (f) ...	743
Clause (b) ...	743
When the existence condition or contents of the original have been proved to be admitted in writing by the person against whom it is to be proved, or by the representative in interest of such person ...	743
Written admissions as to the contents of inadmissible documents are themselves inadmissible ...	743
What constitutes admission of the existence, condition or contents of a document ...	744
Denial of execution of a bond, coupled with a plea of payment ...	744
Section 65 (b)— Question of admissibility of a document cannot be

	Page
raised for the first time in Supreme Court ...	744
Clause (c)
When the original has been destroyed or lost, or when it cannot be produced in reasonable time ...	744
Section 65 (c)— Document in defendant's possession ...	745
Secondary evidence of previous conviction ...	745
Sufficiency and admissibility of the evidence of search for the document ...	746
Document on the record of another case, secondary evidence whether admissible ...	747
Hearsay is inadmissible to prove loss or destruction of the document, but is admissible to prove reasonableness of the search ...	748
Suit on a bond alleged to be lost; loss of bond must be proved even if payment is pleaded ...	748
Reconstruction of a lost record ...	748
Probate may be granted of a lost will ...	748
Section 65 (c)— Secondary Evidence as to the contents of the original ...	749
Any secondary evidence may be given when the original is lost or destroyed or cannot be produced ...	749
Section 65 (c)— Any secondary evidence is admissible ...	749
Clause (d) ...	749
When the original is of such a nature as not to be easily movable ...	749
Clause (e) ...	749
Public documents may be proved by certified copies ...	749
Instances of public documents held provable by certified copies ...	750
Section 65 (e) ...	750
Form of secondary evidence admissible in proof of the contents of a public document ...	751
Clause (f) ...	751
When the original is a document of which a certified copy is permitted by law to be given in evidence ...	751
Income tax documents ...	752
Copies obtained from the registration office are inadmissible unless a case for the reception of secondary evidence under Section 65 of the Evidence Act is made out ...	752
Form of secondary evidence admissible in proof of a document falling under clause (f) ...	752
Clause (g) ...	752
Section 65 (g)— When originals consist of numerous documents etc. ...	753

	Page
Degrees of secondary evidence ; last four paragraphs of the section ...	753
Scope : Sections 65 and 63 : definition and admissibility of secondary evidence ...	754
Sections 65 & 66— Applicability— Agreement of sale entered into with the defendant- Sale to plaintiff— Agreement of sale with vendor— Failure to produce on notice sent by defendant— Admissibility– – Evidence of contents ...	754
Sections 65, 67— Object ...	754
Section 65— Testimonial Compulsion—Attempt to adduce secondary evidence— If can amount to testimonial compulsion ...	755
66. Rules as to notice to produce ...	755
Commentary
Notice to produce is necessary whether the document be in the possession of a party or a stranger ...	756
Application of the section to criminal cases ...	756
Form of notice ...	756
Service of notice ...	756
Estoppel by notice ...	756
Omission to object to the admissibility of secondary evidence tendered without giving notice to produce ...	757
Section 66— Scope— Certified copies admitted and marked as exhibits without objection— Objection at late stage— If open ...	757
Proviso (1) ...	757
When the document is itself a notice ...	757
Proviso (2) ...	757
Where the adverse party must know that he will required to produce the document ...	757
In a redemption suit notice to the mortgagee defendant to produce the mortgage deed is not necessary ...	758
Pro forma defendant, whether adverse party ? ...	758
Proviso (3) ...	758
When the adverse party has obtained possession of the original by force or fraud ...	758
Proviso (4) ...	758
When the adverse party or his agent has the original in Court ...	758
Proviso (5) ...	758
When the adverse party or his agent has admitted loss of the document ...	758
Proviso (6) ...	759
When the original is in the possession of a person who is out of

		Page
	reach of, or not subject to, the process of the Court ...	759
	Notice may be dispensed with in any other case in which the Court thinks fit to dispense with it ...	759
67.	Proof of signature and handwriting of person alleged to have signed or written document produced ...	760
	Commentary
	Principle and Scope ...	760
	Meaning of execution of a document ...	760
	A document not proved is inadmissible evidence unless strict proof was waived; omission to object to proof ...	761
	Mode of proof of signature or writing ...	762
	Presumptive proof of the execution of a document ...	763
	May a document be considered to be proved merely on proof of the signature of an attesting witness ...	764
	Proof of a registered document ...	765
	Proof of corrections of a document ...	766
	Original Sale Deed not filed ...	766
	Proof of signature includes proof of mark or thumb-impression ...	766
68.	Proof of execution of document required by law to be attested ...	767
	Commentary
	Documentary required by law to be attested ...	768
	Document executed in England and required by the English law to be attested ...	768
	A document required by law to be attested cannot be used as evidence, unless at least one attesting witness has been called ...	768
	Failure to comply with the provisions of section 68 does not make the document admissible even if no objection is taken to its admissibility ...	768
	Though more than one attesting witness need not be called, the document ; must be proved to have been properly attested by the requisite number of witnesses ...	769
	When attesting witnesses need not be called ...	771
	Formal proof of Will ...	772
	Where a document required by law to be attested has been properly attested, it cannot be used as evidence even for a collateral purpose, unless one attesting witness has been called ...	772
	Purposes for which a document not proved in accordance with Section 68 is admissible ...	773
	A mortgage deed, if properly attested, cannot be used to create a charge, or as evidence of personal debt, unless one attesting witness has been called; but if the deed is not properly attested, it may be used as evidence of a personal debt without calling an attesting witness ...	773

		Page
Meaning of attestation; attestation of wills governed by the Indian Succession Act	...	774
S. 45, Corroboration of the Signature of testator	...	774
Meaning of attestation; attestation of instruments is required by the Transfer of Property Act to be attested	...	774
Amendment, whether retrospective?	...	774
It is not necessary that both the attesting witness should be present at the same time	...	777
Attestation of deeds executed by pardanashin ladies	...	777
A party to a deed is not a competent attesting witness?	...	778
A scribe cannot attest his own act	...	779
Whether a Sub-Registrar or a witness identifying the executant before a Sub-Registrar can be treated as an attesting witness	...	779
Endorsement of admission of execution made by the Sub-Registrar does not require proof	...	780
Proof of thirty years old documents	...	781
Proviso; in the case of a registered document other than a will an attesting witness need not be called	...	781
Will	...	783
Succession Act, Sections 61, 63	...	783
Succession Act, Sections 276, 213, 63	...	783
The Proviso is retrospective in its operation	...	784
69. Proof where no attesting witness found	...	784
Commentary
Principle	...	784
If no attesting witness can be found	...	784
Proof of unavailability of the attesting witness necessary	...	785
Proof of the handwriting of the attesting witness and of the signature of the executant is necessary	...	785
Proof of signature of the executant	...	786
Proof of the handwriting of the witness	...	786
Objection to the sufficiency of proof under Section 69 cannot be entertained in appeal	...	787
Document executed in England	...	787
70. Admission of execution by party to attested document	...	787
Commentary
Where the execution of a document is admitted, no attesting witness need be called	...	787
Meaning of admission of execution	...	787
To dispense with the proof of execution, the admission must have been for the purposes of the suit; merely evidentary admission do not dispense with the proof of execution	...	788

Page

The admission is binding only on the admitting executant and not on his co-executant or representative in interest ... 789
Provisions of the law requiring certain instruments to be attested are not affected by Section 70 of the Evidence Act, which applies only to properly attested instruments to be attested are not affected by Section 70 of the Evidence, which applies only to properly attested instruments ... 789
Admission of the section of a document does not dispense with the proof of its attestation, if its attestation is denied ... 790

71 Proof when attesting witness denies the execution ... 793

Commentary

Execution of a document may be proofed by other evidence, if the attesting witness called denies or does not recollect its execution ... 793
When the execution of a document is sought to be proved under Section 71, proof of attestation is not necessary ... 794

72. Proof of document not required by law to be attested ... 795

73. Comparison of signature, writing or seal with others admitted or proved ... 795

Commentary

Section 73 lays down an additional mode of proving handwriting ... 795
The admitted or proved writing, signature, etc., may be compared with the writing signature, etc. which either purports, or is alleged, to have been written or made by a particular person ... 796
Disputed writing can be compared only with an admitted or proved writing ... 796
Comparison may be made by the Judge, the jury, or an expert ... 796
Comparison of handwriting is a dangerous mode of proof when the Court is not guided by the evidence of an expert ... 797
Evidence of dissimilarity of handwriting, whether evidence of forgery ? ... 799
Finding based on a comparison of handwriting cannot be set aside in second appeal ... 799
Comparison of the disputed writing with the specimen of writing taken in Court is less satisfactory than comparison of it with approved or admitted previous signature ... 800
Power of Court to direct accused to give his specimen handwriting ... 800
Court can order an accused person to give his finger impression for purposes of comparison ... 800
Value of the evidence of similarity of finger impressions for purposes of comparison ... 802
Section not applicable to a mark, not being a thumb-impression ... 802

		Page
	Public documents ...	802
74.	Public documents ...	802
75.	Private documents ...	802
	Commentary
	Public documents ...	802
	Section 74: Whether original of a public document can be admitted in evidence without proving its execution in accordance with law ...	803
	Section 74 and 65—Scope—Certified copy of registered document —If admissible in evidence—Proof of original—Necessity ...	803
	Documents forming the acts or records of the acts ...	804
	Foreign public documents ...	804
	Acts or records of the acts of the sovereign authority ...	804
	Records of the acts of an official body; record of proceedings of a municipal body ...	804
	Municipal registers of deaths and births ...	805
	Section 74 : Memorandum of association of a company ...	805
	Records of the acts of judicial officers and tribunals ...	805
	Pleadings ...	806
	Section for prosecution ...	807
	Election papers ...	807
	Complainant's statements under Section 200 Cr. P.C. ...	807
	Compromise Deed ...	807
	Sale deed ...	807
	Confession recorded by a Magistrate not specifically empowered during investigation of a case — Admission ...	807
	Warrant and other papers of criminal courts ...	807
	Translated copy ...	807
	Acts or records of the acts of a revenue officer ; revenue records, settlement records, survey and settlement reports, chittahs, jama -bandis, accounts registers, etc. ...	807
	Revenue documents ; Mutations ...	809
	Pariwarik register ...	809
	Income-tax documents ...	809
	Acts or records of the acts of a police officer ...	810
	Other public documents ...	810
	Documents held not to be public documents ...	811
	Public records kept in any State or private documents ...	811
	Trust Deed ...	812
	Specific Relief Act, 1963, Sec. 38 ...	812
76.	Certified copies of public documents ...	812
	Explanation ...	812
77.	Proof of documents by production of certified copies ...	813

Commentary		Page
The fact of a document being a public document and the fact of its being open to inspection are not Co-extensive	...	813
Public document—Proof of—Nature of evidence required	...	813
The right to obtain certified copies	...	813
Test of right to inspect	...	813
Notes of evidence	...	814
Remand reports	...	814
Food adulteration and Money Lender's Act	...	814
Dhatu Neet	...	814
The right to inspect depends on the interest which the person applying for inspection has in the document	...	814
Remedy of the aggrived person where inspection or copy has been wrongly refused	...	814
Defect in the form of certificate	...	815
Copy of a deposition not certified in the manner prescribed by Sections 76 and 86 ; deposition may be proved otherwise	...	815
Copy unlawfully issued or not properly certified is inadmissible	...	815
Unsealed copies	...	815
Certified copy must be of a public document	...	816
Oral evidence of a kanungo not admissible to prove the contents of settlement record	...	816
Copying fees	...	816
Objection with regard to the admissibility of document	...	816
Birth certificate	...	816
78. Proof of other official documents	...	816
Local Amendment	...	816
West Bengal	...	818
Section 78 provides an alternative mode of proving certain public documents	...	818
Clause (1)	...	818
Acts	...	818
Acts, orders of notifications ; Clause (1)	...	818
Conflict between the text of an Act as printed in the Gazette of India and as printed in book form by the Government	...	818
Notification	...	819
Departmental circulars	...	819
Orders of the Government ; order sanctioning prosecution	...	820
Clause (2)	...	820
The proceedings of the Legislatures	...	820

Page

Clause (3) ... 821

Proclamations, orders or regulations issued by His Majesty or by the Privy Council ... 821

Clause (4) ... 821

The Acts of the Executive, or the proceedings of the Legislature of a foreign country ... 821

Clause (5) ... 821

Proceedings of a Municipal body ... 821

Clause (6) ... 822

Foreign public documents ... 822
Proof of foreign judicial records—Foreign Judgment ... 822
Presumptions as to documents ... 822

79. Presumption as to genuineness of certified copies ... 823

Commentary

Certificates and certified documents must be presumed to be genuine ... 823
Presumption as to the original ... 824
Proof of the original ... 824
Presumption of genuineness of a certificate of registration ... 824
Letter signed by the Chief Secretary ordering the prosecution of a person is sufficient proof of the order of prosecution ... 824
A certified copy of revenue record ... 824
Sections 77, 79 and Allahabad High Court Rules, R 260 and Limitation Act (1963) S. 12 ... 824
Objection in appeal ... 825

80. Presumption as to documents produced as record or evidence ... 825

Commentary

Principle ... 825
Evidence must have been in the course of a judicial proceeding or before an officer authorized to take it; police investigation under Chapter XIV, Cr. P. Code, is not a judicial proceeding ... 825
A confession or a statement by an accused person need not have been made in a judicial proceeding ... 826
To give rise to any presumption under Section 80 the evidence must have been taken in accordance with law; effect of not interpreting or reading over a deposition to a witness ... 826
No presumption under Section 80 if the deposition is not signed by the Judge. ... 829
No presumption under Section 80 as to the testation of the deposition of a medical witness sought to be admitted under Section 509, Cr. P. Code ... 829

	Page
Presumption under Section 80 arises also in respect of a certified copy of a deposition ...	829
Recital of a deposition in a judgment ...	830
Is there any presumption under Section 80 as to the identity of the deponent or the confessor ? ...	830
The presumptions of Section 80 arise in respect of the record of the statement or confession of an accused person only if it has been taken according to law ...	831
Sections 80 and 164 and 364 and 533 Cr.P.C. — Proof of confession, deposition ...	832
Confession ...	833
Confession recorded without jurisdiction or otherwise than under any statutory direction ...	833
Certified confessions will be presumed and Section 80 to be voluntary ...	833
Presumptions arise under Section 80 ...	833
Presumption that the document is genuine ...	833
Presumption as to the existence of the circumstances mentioned in the document ...	833
Presumption as the document having been duly taken ...	834
Presumption regarding the regard of a dying declaration when taken as a deposition ...	835
A memorandum of identification proceedings ...	835
Declaration ...	835
81. Presumption as to Gazettes, newspapers, private Acts of Parliament and other documents ...	835
Commentary
Gazettes, newspapers, private Acts, etc. ...	836
Newspapers ...	836
Gazettes ...	837
Electoral roll ...	837
Report of Court of Enquiry ...	837
Records of rights ...	837
A newspaper is not proof of the facts reported ...	837
Document directed by any law to be kept by any person ; register of births and deaths kept under Madras Act III of 1899 ...	838
82. Presumption as to document admissible in England without proof of seal or signature ...	838
Commentary
Documents admissible without proof of seal or signature ...	838
Presumptions as to powers-of-attorney executed and attested abroad ...	839
Certificate by the Manchester Chamber of Commerce not within the section ...	839

		Page
83.	Presumption as to maps or plans made by authority of Government ...	840
	Commentary ...	840
	Maps and plans ; sections 36 and 83 ...	840
	Maps prepared for a cause ...	840
	Presumption of accuracy arises in respect of those maps and plans only which are made for a public purpose ...	840
	Extent of the presumption of accuracy ...	841
	No presumption of accuracy in respect of map or plan made for the purposes of a particular case ...	841
	Instances of maps or plans to which a presumption of accuracy attaches under this section ...	842
	Settlement maps, value of ...	842
84.	Presumption as to collections of laws and reports of decisions ...	842
	Commentary
	Collections of laws and reports of decisions ; Sections 38 and 84 ...	842
	Law books and reports ...	842
85.	Presumption as to powers-of-attorney ...	842
	Commentary
	Powers-of-attorney ...	843
	Power of Attorney ...	843
	Presumption as to a power-of-attorney produced at the time of presenting a document for registration ...	844
	Scope of Presumption ...	844
	Authentical by notary in California ...	844
86.	Presumption as to certified copies of foreign judicial records ...	845
	Commentary
	Certified copies of foreign judicial records ...	845
	Copy must be certified in a manner which is certified by an Indian or British representative to the manner commonly in use in that country ...	846
	The section is not exhaustive of the modes of proof of foreign judicial records ; other modes of proving foreign judicial records ...	846
87.	Presumption as to books, maps and charts ...	846
	Commentary
	Presumption as to books, maps and charts ...	847
88.	Presumption as to telegraphic messages ...	847
	Commentary
	Presumption as to telegraphic messages ...	847

		Page
	Delivery to the addressee from the office of destination must be proved ...	848
	No presumption as to the identity of the sender — No presumption regarding the author of a message sent by post ...	848
	Proof of telegraphic message ...	848
	Presumption as to the delivery of a telegraphic message to the addressee ...	848
	Presumption as to the date and hour of the message ...	849
	Mode of proof a telegraphic message ...	849
	Radio messages ...	849
89.	Presumption as to due execution, etc., of documents not produced ...	849
	Commentary ...	849
	Applicability ...	849
	No presumption as to the contents of the document ...	850
	Doubtful whether the section is applicable when the document is in the possession of a stranger who refuses to produce it ...	850
90.	Presumption as to documents thirty years old ...	851
	Local Amendment ...	852
	Uttar Pradesh ...	852
	Commentary
	As amended in Uttar Pradesh by U.P. Civil Laws Reforms and Amendment Act, 1954 ...	852
	Ancient documents ; principle ...	853
	Construction of ancient documents ...	853
	The scope of Section 90 ...	853
	Documents that are the subject of the presumption ...	853
	Section 90 is applicable to wills produced in Courts of Probate ...	854
	The document must purport or be proved to be thirty years old computation of the period of thirty years—Mode of reckoning period ...	855
	Proof of proper custody necessary ...	855
	Document of title in the custody of a person out of possession ...	856
	Meaning of "proper custody" ; Explanation ...	856
	Instance of proper custody ...	857
	Document produced from the records of a Court, whether produced from proper custody ? Custody of Court ...	858
	The Presumption is discretionary and not imperative ...	858
	Presumption must be applied with care and caution ...	860
	Proper cases for the application of the presumption ...	861
	Cases where the Court may refuse to apply to presumption ...	861
	Procedure in, and consequent on making the presumption ...	862

		Page
	Interference by the appellate Court with the discretion of the trial Court in the matter of raising the presumption ...	862
	Extent of the presumption, no presumption as to the correctness of the contents of the document — Extent of presumption ...	863
	Presumption of due execution ...	863
	Presumption of a sound disposing mind and due attestation in the case of an ancient will ...	865
	No presumption that the document was executed by a pardanashin lady intelligently and without undue influence ...	865
	No presumption as to the agent's authority when the document is executed by an agent ...	865
	Presumption of authority to execute document ...	865
	No presumption as to the authority of the executant of a deed of grant ...	866
	Document executed by an illiterate person ; document marked by an illiterate executant or signed on his behalf by the scribe ...	866
	Presumption of due attestation includes cases of attestation by agent ...	867
	Attestation by a Registrar ...	867
	Section 90 is inapplicable to documents not purporting to be signed by, or to be in the handwriting of, any particular person ; unsigned accounts ...	867
	Unsigned accounts ...	868
	No presumption of due execution in favour of the original where the contents of the original are proved by a copy ...	868
	Presumption under Section 90—Scope and applicability ...	868
	A copy purporting to be 30 years old and produced from proper custody may be presumed to have been written or signed by the person by whom it purports to have been written or signed ...	870
	Certified copies of document ...	870
	Evidentiary value of ancient documents ; need for corroboration ...	871
	Service books and other documents ...	872
	Sections 90 and 65 — Copy of document admitted as secondary evidence ...	872
	Commercial Documents ...	872
	Chapter VI ...	873
	Of the exclusion of oral by documentary evidence ...	873
91.	Evidence of terms of contracts, grants and other disposition of property reduced to form of document ...	873
	Exception 1 ...	873
	Exception 2 ...	873
	Explanation 1 ...	873
	Explanation 2 ...	873

	Page
Explanation 3 ...	873
Illustrations ...	873
Commentary
Principle ...	874
Section 10-A of the Deccan Agriculturists' Relief Act overrides Section 91 ...	874
Section 91 is applicable to third parties ...	875
Distinction between the provisions of Section 64 and those of Section 91. ...	875
Three classes of cases where oral evidence is excluded by documentary evidence ...	875
Oral evidence is not excluded where the fact to be proved is neither the contents of a document, nor the terms of a contract, grant or disposition of property, nor a matter required by law to be reduced to writing ...	876
Explanation III ; other evidence not excluded if the fact to be proved is a fact other than the facts referred to in the section ...	876
The date of document ...	877
Endorsement of payment on the back of a bond ...	877
Endorsement on a deed of alienation, not a record of contract ...	877
Oral proof of payment or non-payment of money for which a receipt has been taken is admissible ...	877
In the case of a contract, grant or disposition oral evidence is excluded only if the transaction has been actually reduced to wiritng ; but in the case of matter required by law to be reduced to writing oral evidence is excluded whether the matter has been reduced to writing or not ...	878
Oral evidence is excluded only if all the terms of the contract, grant or disposition have been reduced to writing ...	879
Whether bought and sold notes constitute a contract so as to exclude other evidence ...	879
Other evidence is inadmissible in proof of the terms of a contract, grant or disposition of property, if such terms have been reduced to writing ...	880
Evidence of original oral agreement preceding the written contract is inadmissible ...	882
Other evidence is admissible in proof of the factum or existence of a transaction as distinguished from its terms ...	882
Instrument not registered according to law, other evidence in proof of the terms of the transaction is inadmissible ...	884
Registration Act Section 17(1)(b) and 49 T.P.A. Section 5 ...	886
Mortgage-deed inadmissible, independent proof of title not excluded...	886
Oral proof of payment where receipt for money has not been registered as required by law ...	886

		Page
	Document inadmissible for want of proper stamp ; other evidence in proof of the terms of the transaction is inadmissible if the transaction is a contract, grant or disposition, or is a matter required by law to be reduced to writing ...	886
	Promissory note, bill or hundi not properly stamped, whether the transaction of loan may be proved by other evidence ...	886
	Whether the mere fact of payment of money gives a cause of action ; meaning of "suit on the consideration " ...	890
	Insufficiently stamped promissory note need not be proved if the transaction of loan is admitted by the defendant in his pleadings ...	892
	Rate of interest in an inadmissible promissory note ...	892
	Document inadmissible by reason of its not having been properly attested or by reason of its having been materially altered, oral evidence of the transaction inadmissible ...	892
	Object of agreement to stifle prosecution, other evidence of the agreement whether admissible ...	893
	Matters required by law to be reduced to the form of a document ...	893
	Instance of matters required by law to be reduced to the form of a document ...	893
	A contract of sale is not required by law to be reduced to writing ...	894
	Whether oral evidence of a confession to a Magistrate is admissible when the Magistrate has made no record of the confession or when the record is defective ...	894
	Oral evidence in proof of a deposition ...	895
	Acknowledgment of liability ; payment of interest on, and part payment of, the principal of a debt ...	896
	Previous conviction must be proved by documentary evidence ...	898
	Oral evidence of a dying declaration ...	898
	Statement to the police ...	898
	Oral evidence in a proof of a search, whether admissible ...	898
	Exception I ; appointment of a public servant may be proved by proof of his having acted as such ...	899
	Exception II ; wills may be proved by the probate ...	899
	Explanation I ; transaction contained in more documents than one ...	899
	Explanation II ; only one original need be proved ...	899
	Explanation III ...	900
	Illustration (b) ...	900
92.	Exclusion of evidence of oral agreement ...	900
	Proviso (1) ...	900
	Proviso (2) ...	900
	Proviso (3) ...	900
	Proviso (4) ...	901
	Proviso (5) ...	901
	Proviso (6) ...	901

	Page
Illustrations ...	901
Commentary
Principle ...	902
Distinction between Section 91 and Section 92 ...	902
Oral evidence is not excluded if the terms of the contract, grant or disposition have not been reduced to writing ...	902
Oral evidence is admissible to show that, notwithstanding a written agreement, there was no oral agreement between the parties ...	903
Oral evidence is admissible to show that a writing does not represent a completed transaction ...	905
The section is not applicable where the whole contract has not been reduced to writing ...	905
Whether endorsement on a promissory note embodies all the terms of the contract ...	906
The rule enacted by Section 92 of the Evidence Act is relaxed by Section 10-A of the Daccan Agriculturists' Relief Act ...	906
Oral evidence of the intention of the parties to a document is inadmissible ...	906
Oral evidence of the intention or of the acts and conduct of the parties, whether admissible to show that an instrument was intended by the parties to be different from what it purports to be or to show that there was a contemporaneous oral agreement varying the terms of the instrument ; mortgage or sale ...	907
Oral evidence to contradict the terms of a lease ...	911
Oral evidence to contradict the terms of a mortgage-deed is inadmissible ...	912
Inadequacy of consideration may be taken into consideration is determining the question whether a transaction is a sale or a mortgage ...	912
Evidence of the acts and conduct of the parties is admissible to construe a document ...	913
Evidence of conduct is admissible when the document is ambiguous or obscurely framed ...	913
Contemporanea expositio ; acts of the parties are admissible to explain but not to contradict documents ...	914
Course of dealing ...	915
Subsequent acts and declarations of a parent purchasing property in the name of a child are inadmissible ...	915
Preliminary negotiations, conversations, correspondence, etc., not admissible to contradict or vary the terms of a document but admissible to identify the subject-matter of the agreement ...	915
Evidence of oral agreement to vary terms implied by law in a written contract ...	916

	Page
Oral agreement as to the discharge or satisfaction of liability arising out of a written instrument ...	917
Whether the ostensible executant of a written contract can show that he signed otherwise than as an executant, e.g., as an agent, partner, surety, witness or a benamidar ...	917
Benami promissory notes ...	919
Whether an instrument containing an absolute promise to pay on demand may be shown by oral evidence to be not enforceable on demand ...	919
Endorsement of payment on the back of a bond ...	919
Whether a hiba (gift) may be shown to be a hiba biliwaz (gift for consideration) and vice versa ...	919
Gift cannot be shown to be a will ...	919
Absolute gift cannot be shown to be revocable ...	920
A gift cannot be proved to be a convenience ...	920
Parol evidence is admissible to show that a joint tenancy has been converted into a tenancy-in-common ...	920
Oral agreement as to the date of delivery of goods arriving by a specific steamer ...	920
Oral agreement to waive a default clause in a bond ...	920
Evidence in variation or contradiction of bought and sold notes ...	920
Deposit or pledge ...	920
Oral evidence to show that two documents embody one transaction ...	920
Disposition in favour of A and "others"; oral evidence admissible to establish the identity of "others" ...	921
Oral evidence contradicting recitals of fact which are not "terms" of a contract, grant or disposition is admissible ...	921
The section applies only to dispositive instruments and excludes parol evidence only as between the parties to such instruments and their representatives in interest ...	922
Evidence to contradict a recital in a record ...	923
Oral agreement adjusting or varying a decree, whether provable ...	923
Parol evidence is not inadmissible where the proceeding are between strangers, or between a party and a stranger; or between co-obligors or between co-obligees ...	925
Members of a joint Hindu family are parties to a deed executed by the manager of the family ...	927
Later oral agreement between only some representatives of the original parties to the deed ...	927
Proof of the benami character of a transaction ...	928
Oral evidence as to secret trusts in wills ...	928
Plea as to intention to lead oral evidence ...	929
Proviso (1) ...	929
Separate suit for rectification or rescission of the instrument is not necessary	930

	Page
Fraud ...	930
Fraud must be contemporaneous and not subsequent ...	932
A party may be estopped from insisting on the apparent character of a document ...	932
Intimidation ...	933
Illegality ...	933
Want of due execution ...	933
Want of capacity ...	933
Want of failure of consideration ...	933
Recital of receipt of consideration may operate as an estoppel ...	936
Mistake of fact or law ...	936
Proviso (2) ...	939
Separate oral agreement ...	939
Distinction between cases where the whole contract has not been reduced to writing and the cases falling within this Proviso ...	939
Separate oral agreement as to a matter is admissible where the document is not a formal deed or instrument and contains no provision as to that matter ...	940
Onus of proving collateral oral agreement ...	942
Separate written agreement ...	942
Document of loan silent as to interest ; whether oral agreement as to interest is provable ...	942
Evidence of a separate oral agreement is admissible only if it is not inconsistent with the terms of the document, and the document is silent on the point ...	943
Whether a promissory note payable on demand can be proved by oral evidence not to be so ...	946
Mortgage money payable on demand, oral agreement that the money would be paid by instalments is inadmissible ...	947
Proviso (3) ...	947
Conditional instruments ...	947
Oral agreement making the operation of a promissory note payable on demand conditional on the fulfilment of a condition is provable...	948
Promissory note : oral agreement held not constituting a condition precedent ...	950
Distinction between an agreement which constitutes a condition precedent and one which operates as a defeasance ...	952
Condition precedent must be such as prevents the attaching of any obligation whatever and not any particular obligation under the instrument ...	953
Condition precedent must not be inconsistent with any stipulation in the deed ...	953
Contracts subject to approval or sanction ...	954
Conditional instruments ; escrows ...	954

	Page
Proviso (4) ...	955
Subsequent oral agreement rescinding or varying a contract ...	955
"Distinct subsequent oral agreement" ; agreement inferred from the acts and conduct of the parties ...	956
Evidence of a subsequent oral agreement rescinding or modifying a transaction is required by law to be reduced to writing ...	956
Evidence of a subsequent oral agreement residing or varying the terms of a transaction is inadmissible if the document embodying transaction has been registered ...	957
Subsequent oral agreement rescinding or modifying the terms of a sale deed or a deed of or exchange is inadmissible where the sale or exchange is required by law to be reduced to writing or has been registered ...	958
Vendee attesting a sale deed of the same property by this vendor in favour of another person. Estoppel or rescission? ...	958
Variation or rescission of a lease, where the lease is required by law to be in writing or has been registered, is not provable ...	959
Evidence of surrender or relinquishment of tenancy evidenced by a registered lease is admissible ...	960
Variation of rescission of a mortgage which is required by law to be in writing or which has been registered in not provable ...	960
Subsequent oral agreement in discharge or satisfaction of the obligations created by a registered instrument or by a contract required by law to be reduced to writing is admissible ; discharge of a mortgage or pronote debt ...	962
Oral agreement to postpone the right of causing the mortgaged property to be sold ...	966
A contemporaneous oral agreement as to the mode of discharge of an obligation created by a written instrument is admissible ...	966
An independent contract which does not purport to rescind or modify the original written contract is not governed by the proviso ; subsequent oral agreement to re-convey property sold by a registered deed ...	967
Proviso (5) ...	968
Incidents annexed by usage to contracts ...	968
Meaning and proof of custom or usage ...	969
Distinction between evidence of usage and evidence of practice ...	969
The annexing of the incident must not be inconsistent with the terms of the document ...	970
Test of admissibility of the evidence of usage ...	971
Evidence of a custom extending due date ...	971
Custom as to the rights and liabilities of brokers acting for undisclosed principals ...	971

		Page
	Custom of drawing hundi without disclosing the drawer's agency ...	972
	Usage as to the payment of interest ...	972
	Evidence of usage to show that words are used in a special sense ...	972
	Proviso (6) ...	972
	Surrounding circumstances ...	972
	Surrounding circumstance admissible to show the identity or extent of the subject-matter or meaning of terms or identity of a person ...	972
	Admissibility of surrounding circumstances to explain or interpret written contracts grants and instruments other than wills ...	973
	Sale or mortgage? ...	974
	Evidence of surrounding circumstance is not admissible where there is no ambiguity in the document, or where the ambiguity is a "patent" ambiguity as distinguished from a "latent" ambiguity ...	975
	Construction of printed documents ...	976
	Court's power to construe and interpret a document in the light of surrounding circumstances is not affected by the rule in Section 92 ...	976
	Admissibility of surrounding circumstances to explain wills ...	976
	(i) Persons ...	977
	(ii) Subject-matter ...	977
	(iii) Meaning of terms and other ambiguities ...	977
	General rules governing the construction of wills ...	978
	Subsequent circumstances ...	978
	Ambiguities in documents ...	978
	General principles governing the admission of extrinsic evidence to interest documents ...	978
	Construction of a document, whether a question of law or of fact ; competency of a second appeal ...	980
	Ambiguities in documents ; "patent ambiguities" and "latent ambiguities" ...	980
	Parol evidence is not admissible to explain a patent ambiguity, but is admissible to explain a latent ambiguity ...	980
	Inaccuracies in documents ...	981
93.	Exclusion of evidence to explain or amend ambiguous documents...	981
	Illustrations ...	981
	Commentary
	Patent ambiguities which cannot be explained by extrinsic evidence ...	981
	Ambiguous language ...	982
	Insufficient description of property ...	983
	Ambiguity in the clause relating to interest ...	983
	Mistakes may be corrected, and blanks and omissions filled by the Courts by the ordinary rules of construction ...	984

Page

Blanks left in a document by mistake or fraud ... 984
Inconsistency between printed and written matter, or between words and figures ... 984

94. Exclusion of evidence against application of document to existing facts

Illustration ... 984

Commentary ... 984

Extrinsic evidence is not admissible where there is no ambiguity in a document
Words of a document must be understood in their primary or ordinary sense ... 984
Primary meaning of words when applied to persons ... 985
Primary meaning of words when applied to property ... 985
Extrinsic evidence not admissible to construe an unambigious document ... 985
Mutual mistake of the parties to a document may be proved even if the document as executed is plain and unambiguous ... 986

95. Evidence as to document in unmeaning reference to existing facts... 987

Illustration ... 987

Commentary ... 987

Evidence is admissible to show that the words in a documents are used in a secondary or special sence and not in their primary or ordinary sense ... 987
Incorrect names and description ; distinction between section 95 and section 97 ... 988
Misdescription of property ; partial misdescription does not render an instrument inoperative ; false demonstration no nocet ... 988
Extrinsic evidence to explain a decree or a security bond ... 989
Generia descriptio, whether controlled by accumulative description ... 990
Discrepancy between field numbers and other description, or between area and other description, of property ... 990
Variance between description or measurements as given in the deed and as given in the plan or schedule ... 991
Extrinsic evidence admissible to prove identity of property in cases of ambiguous description ... 991
Misdescription may be pleaded as a defence ... 992
Misdescription of persons ... 992
Other instances of misdescription ... 992
Misdescription due to mistake ... 992
Direct declarations of intention, whether admissible to remove a latent ambiguity under Sections 95 and 97 ... 993

		Page
96.	Evidence as to application of language which can apply to one only of several persons ...	993
	Illustrations ...	993
	Commentary
	Language of the document equally applicable to more than one person or thing ; equivocations ...	994
	Document bearing two dates ...	995
	Direct declarations of intention ...	995
	Evidence of conduct ...	995
97.	Evidence as to application of language to one of two sets of facts, to neither of which the whole correctly applies ...	996
	Illustration ...	996
	Commentary
	Distinction between Sections 95, 96 and 97 ...	997
	Extinsic evidence is admissible where part of the document applies to one subject-matter and part to another ...	996
	Direct declarations of intention whether admissible to remove a latent ambiguity under Section 97 ...	997
98.	Evidence as to meaning of illegible characters, etc ...	997
	Illustration ...	997
	Commentary
	Principle ...	997
	Evidence to show the meaning of illegible or not commonly intelligible characters ...	998
	Evidence to show the meaning of foreign obsolete, technical, local and provincial expressions, of abbreviations, and of words used in a peculiar sense is admissible ...	998
	Code expressions ...	998
	Evidence of usage ...	998
	Custom or usage annexing incidents to contracts, etc. ...	999
99.	Who may give evidence of agreement varying terms of document...	999
	Illustration ...	999
	Commentary
	The section is superfluous ...	1000
100.	Saving of provisions of Indian Succession Act relating wills ...	1000
	Commentary
	Special rules of construction of wills ...	1000
	Hindu wills ...	1000